The Marianists Are Dedicated to Every

Through their Religion and Ethics courses, the Marianists here at St. Joseph's amply provide for the spiritual nurture of their students from every grade whether they be Catholics or non-Catholics.

Saint Joseph College is an institution conducted by the Marianists well known for their teaching activities especially in high schools all over the world. These religious go about sanctifying their lives and educating youth under the auspices of Mary, Mother of Jesus and of men. Father Chaminade often referred to the religious order he founded as "The Queen's Guard" and therefore, the Marianist takes besides the three ordinary religious vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, a fourth vow, stability, a consecration to the Blessed Virgin. This vow makes them permanent and irrevocable servants of Mary.

There are three categories of Marianists: priests, teaching brothers, and working brothers, all united into one corporate religious body and enjoying the same privileges in the Society of Mary. Three priests and fifteen teaching

The Marianists as specialized educators teach all normal subjects that are found in ordinary secondary and elementary schools. Saint Joseph's students receive Marianist instruction in the basic three R's to calculus and other college preparatory work.

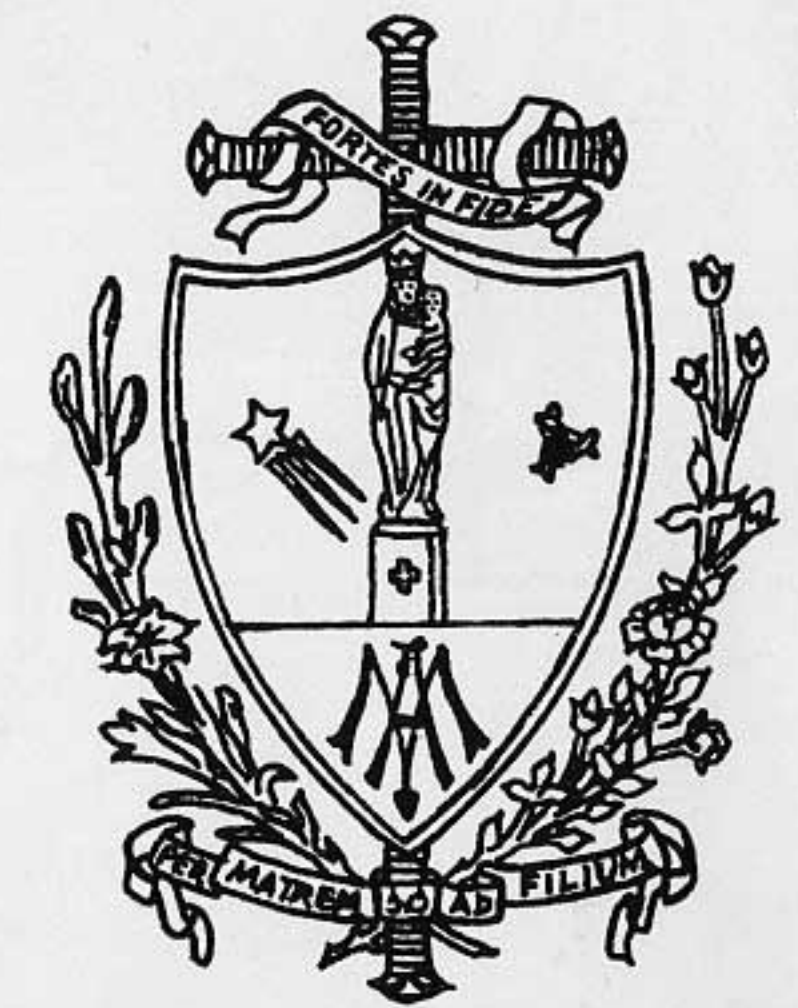

Brothers help carry out Mary's work at SJC. Our Brothers, whose purpose is not to earn a living but to educate and instruct youth for Christ, teach all subjects that are found in ordinary secondary and elementary schools. When the school day comes to an end, they gather in the chapel to perform their own religion duties. In order to relieve themselves from the tension caused through teaching, the Brothers relax by joining up with their lads in a game or two, by a quiet stroll along the Bluff, or by personally renewing their own filial intentions to Mary in the chapel.

Boys may come and graduates may go but the Marianists remain at the helm of SJC guiding it in the sweet rays of the Star of the Sea towards greater success for the souls of its students past and present.

Phase of Education

The Marianists also devote time to the physical care and development of their students. Under organized recreational activities, the boys receive sufficient exercise in soccer, baseball, basketball, track and field and even in "cops and robbers."

Saint Joseph College is an institution for vocational guidance as well as for better Christian education. Courses are accordingly divided to suit the capabilities of the students thus placing them on the right track toward their Eternal Destination.

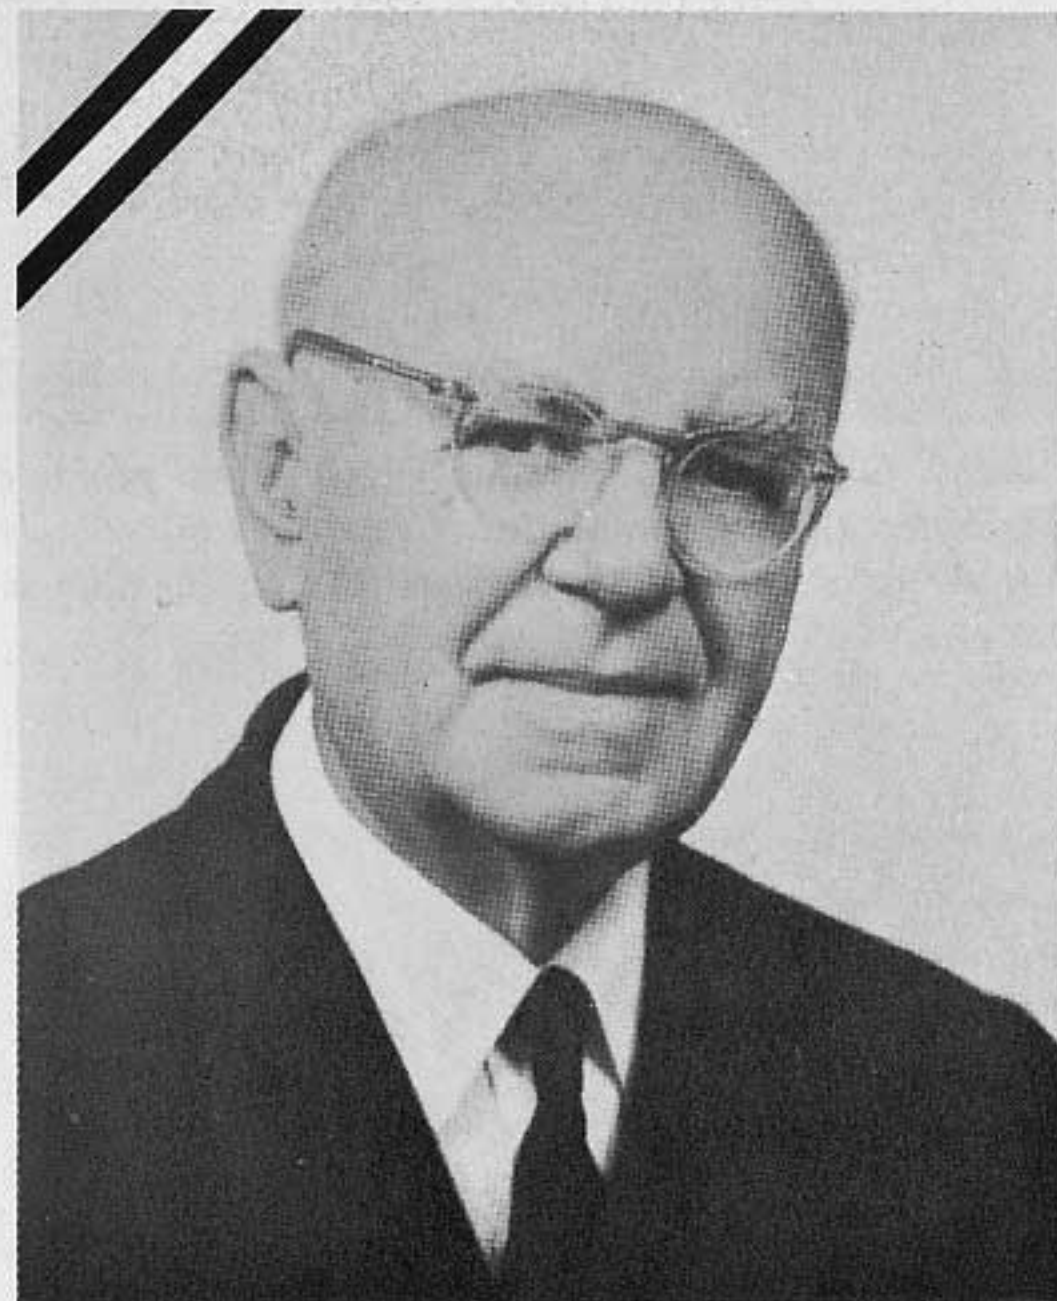

Through the memorable Marianist impressions deeply rooted in the graduates and through the sound religious instruction infused into their minds, the influence of the Marianists has spread even outside the school among the general public via the S. J. C. Association and the assemblies and retreats held for the former students.

Pope John XXIII

Angelo Giuseppe Cardinal Roncalli, Patriarch of Venice, on November 4, 1958, was elected to the Supreme Pontificate of the Church as Pope John XXIII. A distinguished diplomat Pope John is particularly noted for his broadmindedness and charity.

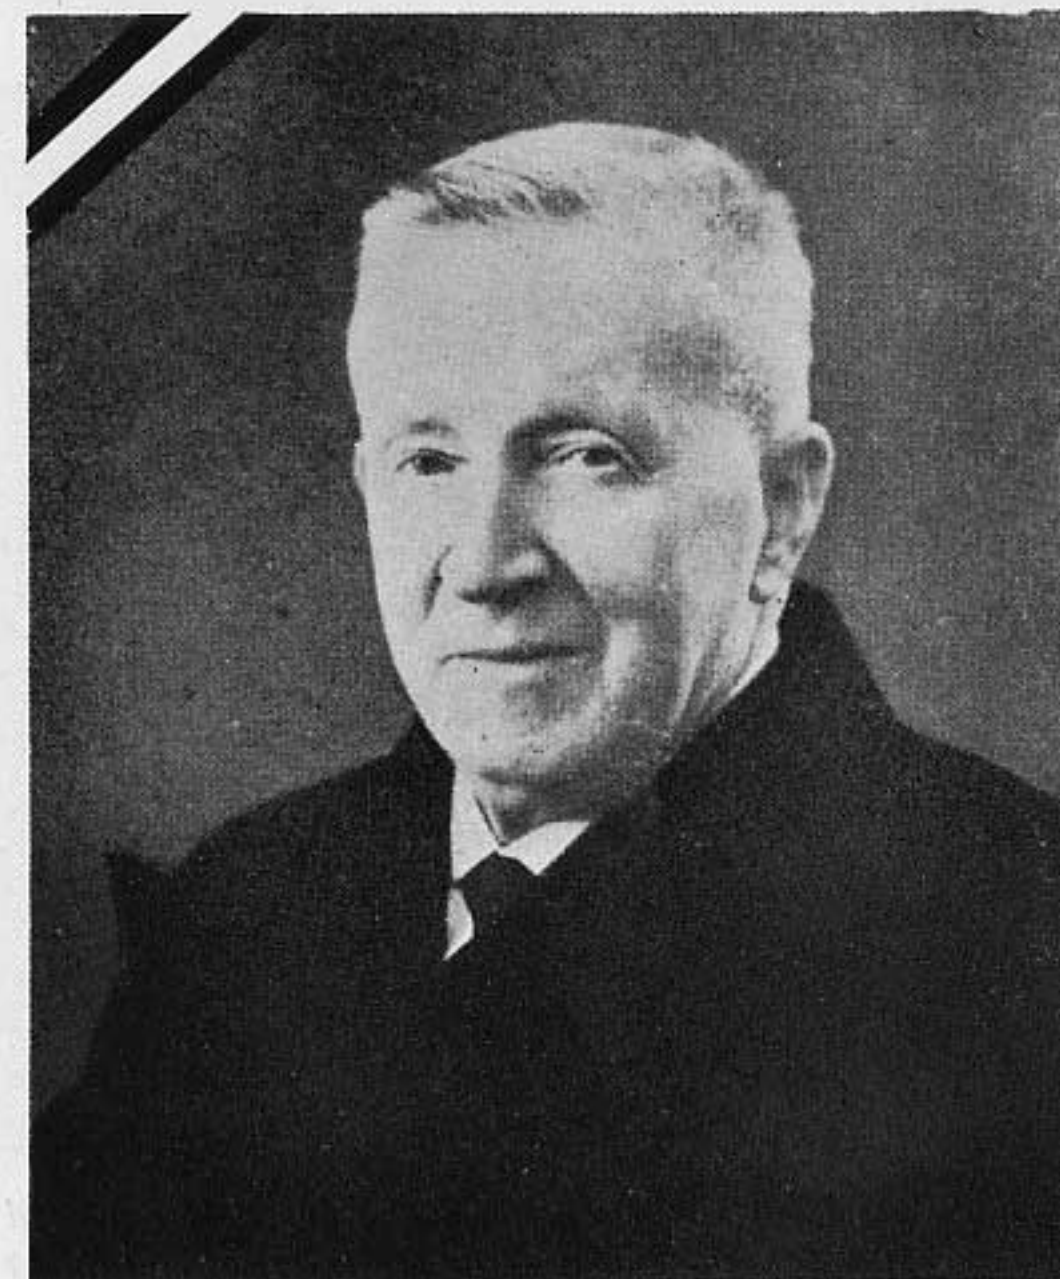

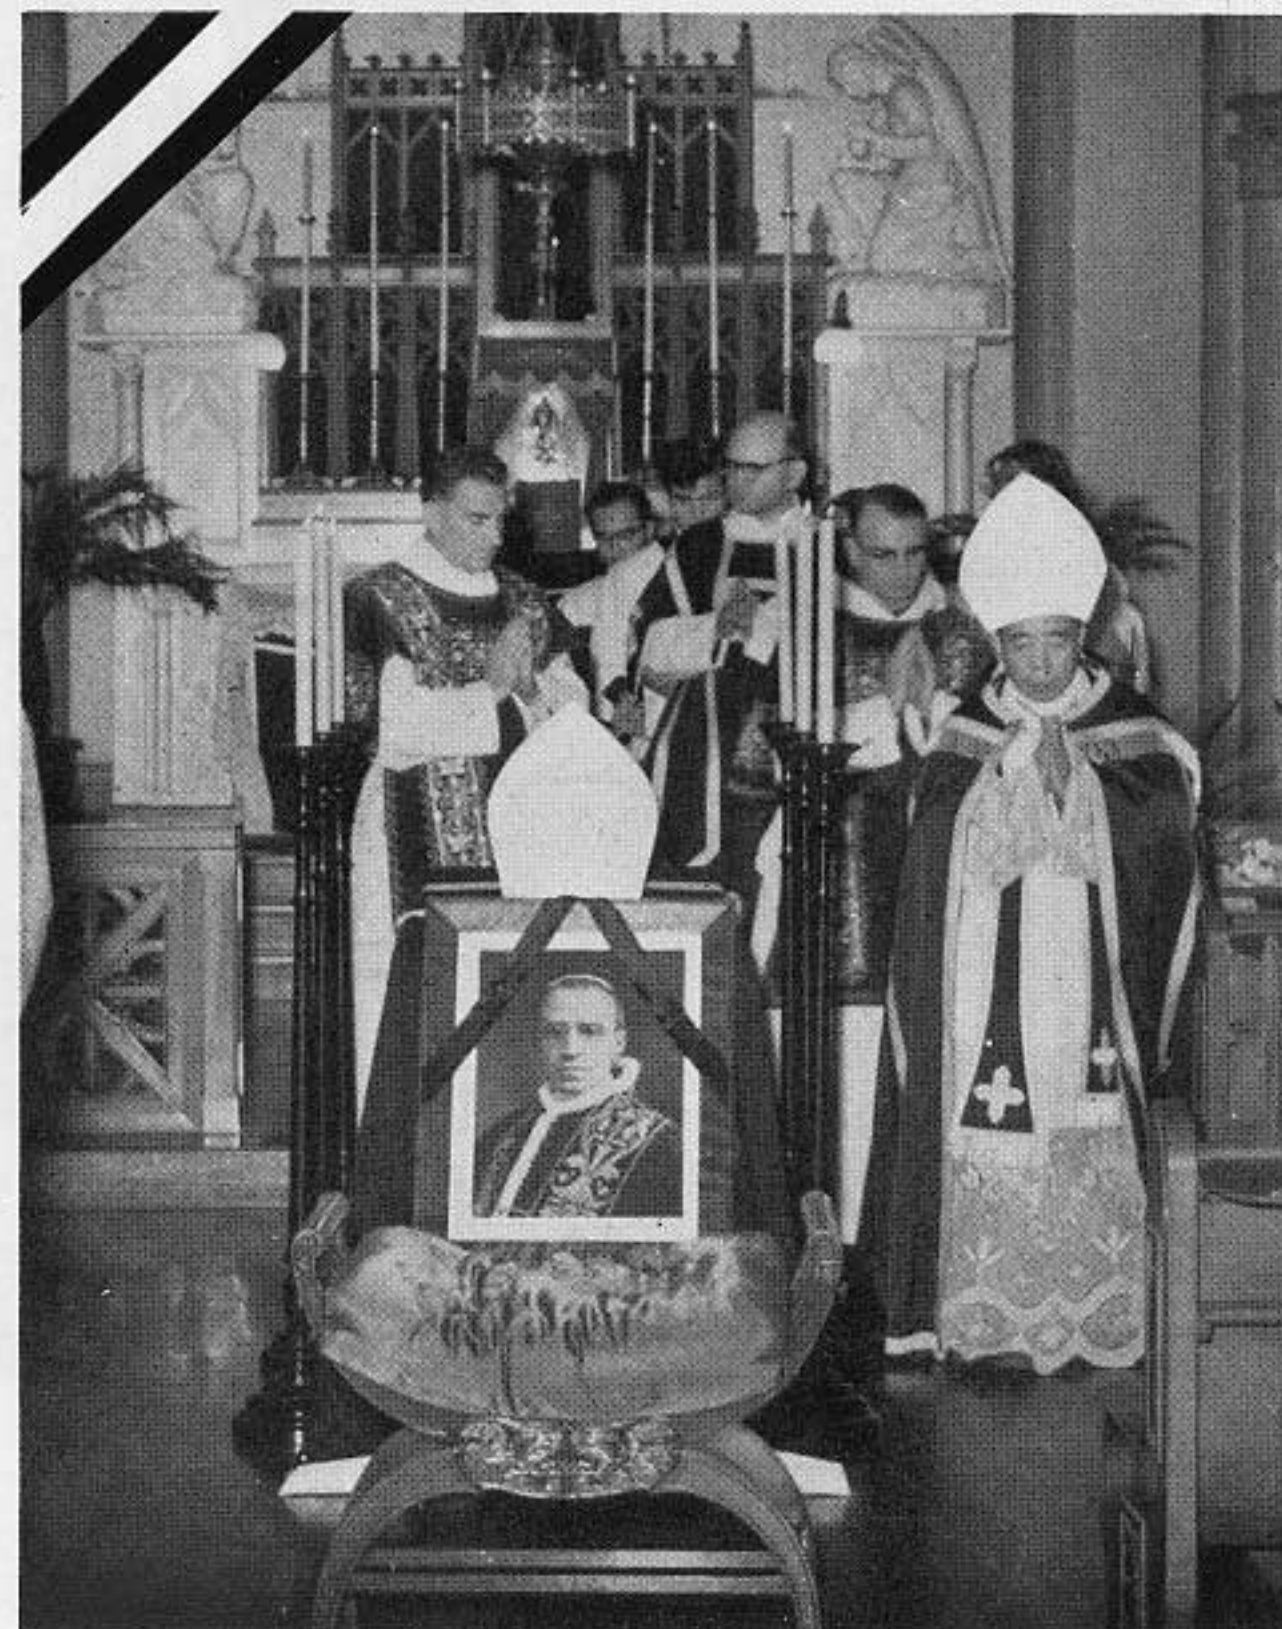

Brother Adolph Eiben S. M.

On September, 25, 1958, a little more than a year after he left S. J. C. for Hawaii, Brother Adolph Eiben of the Iron City, Pittsburgh, while taking a peaceful stroll on the campus of St. Louis College in Honolulu, Hawaii, was called to his Eternal Reward. Born in 1880, Brother Adolph first came to Japan in 1906 and missioned at Saint Joseph College for 11 years. In 1919 he returned to the U. S. A. to become principal of Holy Redeemer School, Detroit. From 1921 to 1930, he concentrated his efforts to building Greater St. Louis College, Honolulu. The second step of his building achievements took him in 1930 to Puerto Rico, where he started the first Marianist school on the island. Then in 1939 Maui, Hawaii, claimed him to initiate St. Anthony's High School. 1947 saw him commemorate his golden jubilee as a gregious educator, and in the same year, he returned to S. J. C. where for the next ten years he took charge of the science-mathematics division of the High School Department. Then he returned to St. Louis College, Hawaii, only to return also to his Maker and to his Mother, the Blessed Virgin.

Footprints on the Sands of Time

On October 6, 1958 Pius XII, Pope of Peace and 82 year old spiritual Leader of nearly a half billion Roman Catholics throughout the world, passed away in his summer residence in Castel Gandolfo, Italy. Already, by millions, he is looked upon as a saint, and his early canonization is regarded as certain. With his demise passed one of the greatest figures of the 20th century.

A solemn memorial service was held at the Sacred Heart Cathedral, Yokohama, presided by the Most Reverend Bishop Luke Arai in October, 1958.

Brother Edward Sandrock S. M.

On April 4, 1958, Brother Edward Sandrock passed to Eternal Happiness. He was a big man and held big positions, and a very checkered career was his. First France, then Switzerland in the Occident; first China then Japan in the Orient were the scenes of his educational activities. Born in Alsace in 1879, he grew up to be a true French patriot. During World War I Brother Edward served two years as interpreter for the Allied Forces. On return to Japan he directed for nine years the destinies of St. Mary's Apostolic School, Urakami, which was later devastated by the atomic bomb. Then intrepidly he returned to China to start a new mission and remained there till the Communist drove him out in 1947. Since that time Brother Ed, a model of Marianist kindness and zeal, helped rect the library and taught at S. J. C. until he answered the call of his Creator.

Arrivals and Departures

Brother Francis Tribull, Principal, bids sayonara to Brother Paul Boeckerman, former head of the Science Department, May, 1958.

Happy welcome for Brother Francis Tribull, new Principal, aboard the President Hoover, May, 1958.

Father Wilhelm, previous principal, leaves for U. S. A. Friends and OB's bid him good-bye at Haneda Airport, August, 1958.

Brother Jose Arnaiz leaves Japan from Tokyo International Airport in early September, 1958.

Father Gerber eats first breakfast in Japan, after his return in August, 1958.

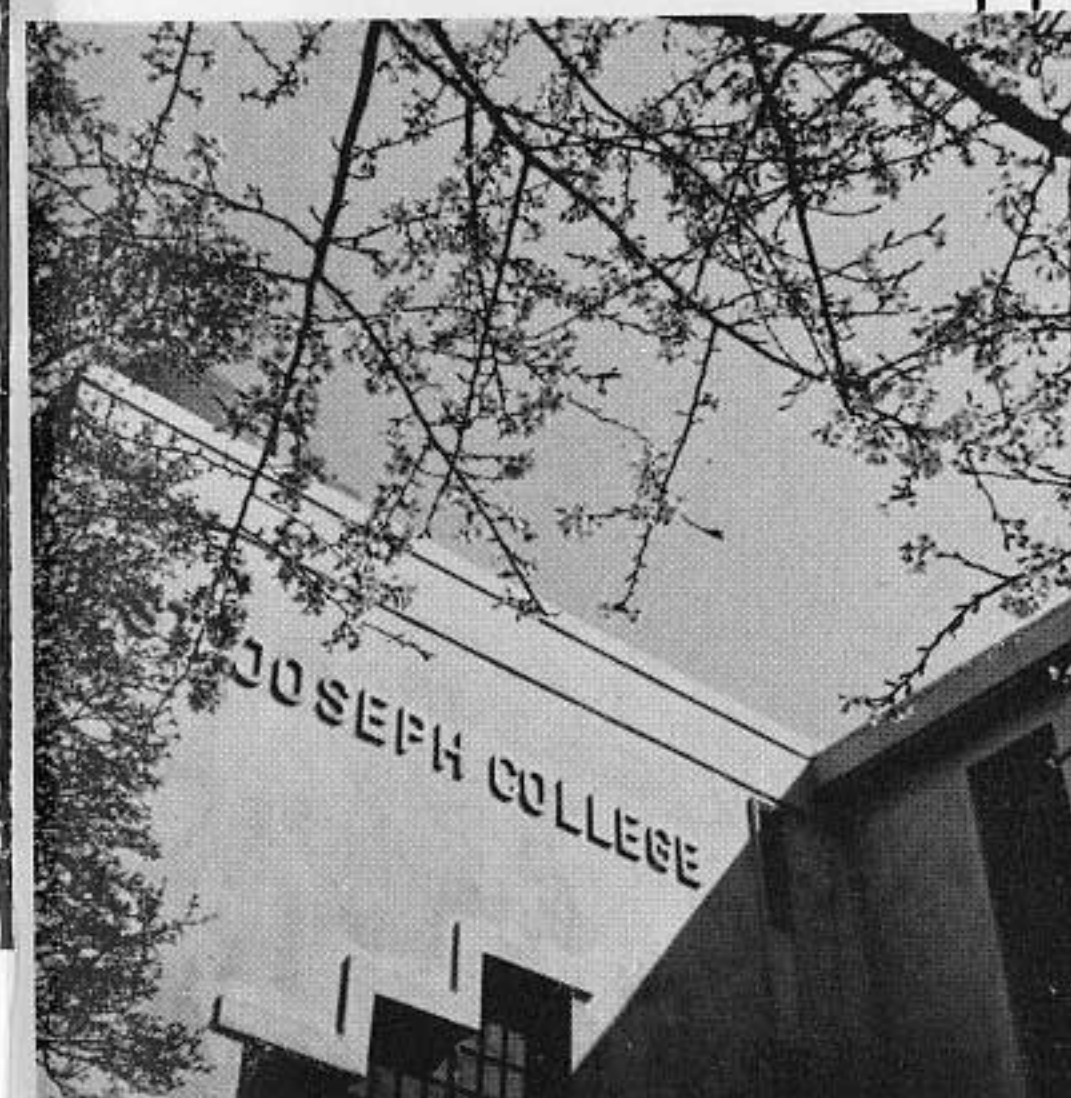

FACULTY OF S.J.C.

Saint Joseph College has a faculty of twenty-four, of whom two are non-teaching; four are non-Marianists. There are three Marianist priests and 15 Brothers.

During the 59 years since its founding, SJC has borne witness to many great Marianist events. In 1912 Brother Gaschy (R. I. P.), a former principal for 27 years, received the Legion of Honor, France's highest public award. The Emperor of Japan likewise in 1954 bestowed on him the Fourth Order of the Sacred Treasure in recognition of his 51 years of educational service in Japan. In the same year we celebrated a concurrent triple jubilee, namely, that of Brother Albert for his 60th Marianist year; Brother Schermesser, his 50th; and Brother Francis, his 25th. Again in the following year, Brother Imhoff added his Marian laurel of 50 years to the Society of Mary. Two years ago saw Brother Albert receive the Imperial Fifth Order of the Sacred Treasure for 59 years of teaching service in Japan.

As for the SJC Marianists themselves, besides teaching they find time to direct a variety of co-curricular activities ranging from soccer through scouting to even stamp-collecting. They are ably assisted by the non-Marianist members of the Faculty especially in the teaching of the Japanese language.

Brother Francis J. Tribull, S. M.

PRINCIPAL

When in the course of educational events it became necessary for our school to have a leader to guide us through times of expansion, Brother Francis was the one most fitting. Born in 1912 in Maryland our Brother Francis joined the American Marianists on Assumption Day, 1929.

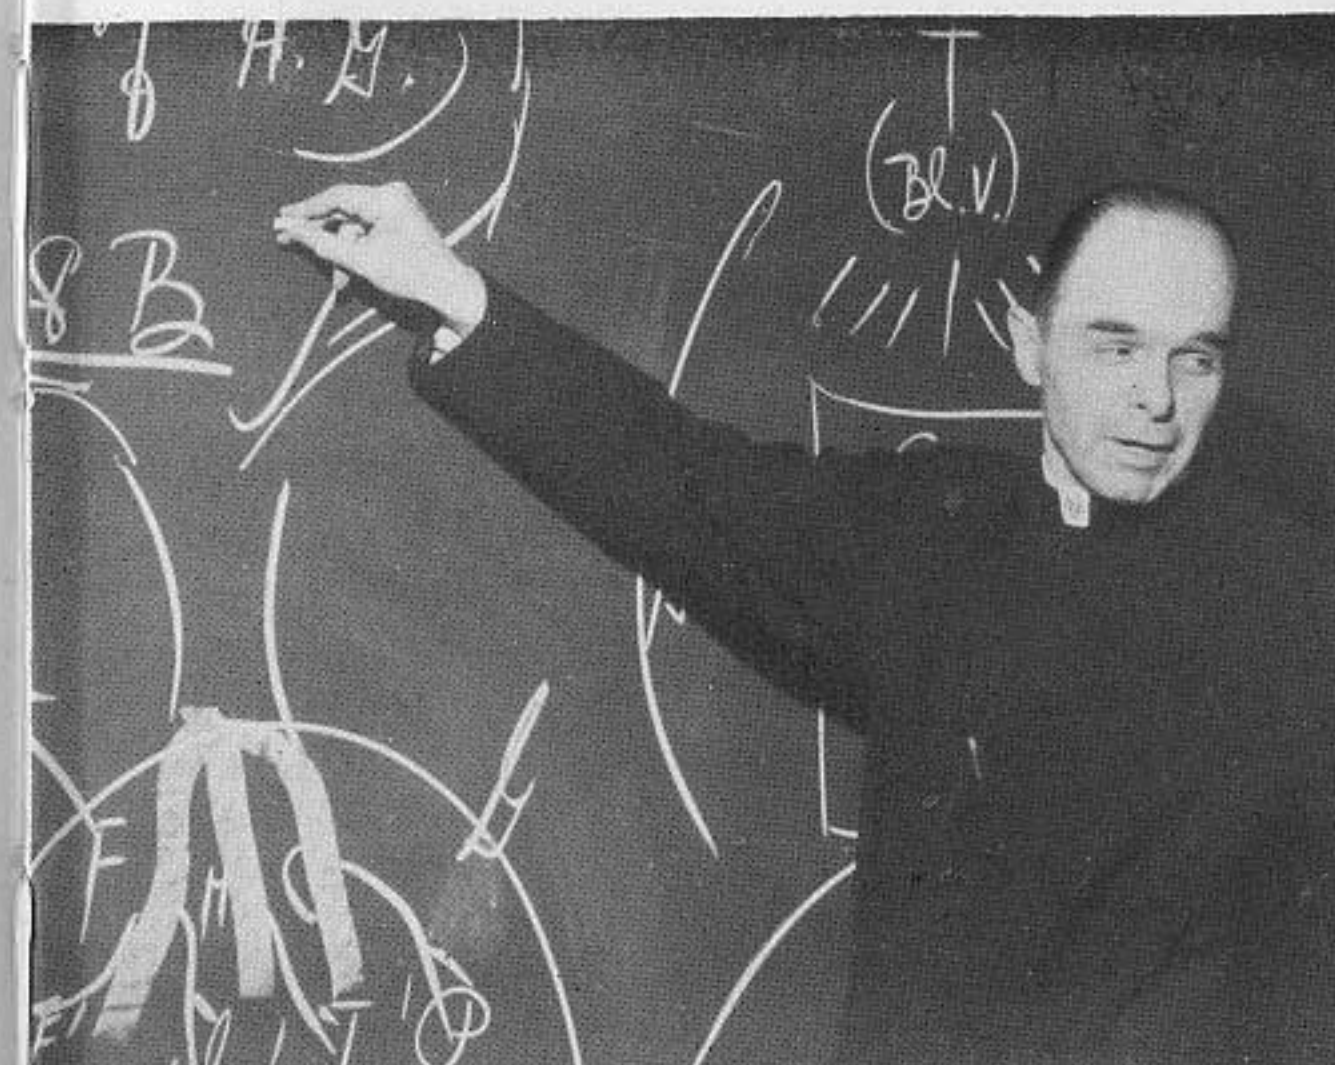

Japan first greeted Brother Francis in 1936, but World War repatriated him on the Gripsholm in 1942. In 1946 he returned to St. Joseph's and remained here for more than a decade ministering to the educational needs of the students and their physical training especially in basketball. Eleven years later he spent a year in the States and from 1958 has been at the helm of S.J.C.

Brother Francis is a disciplinarian yet he is a warmhearted father to his boys. He knows his students by their first names and he never fails to reward them for their scholastic achievements. The older boys will well remember some 10 years ago, when Brother used to distribute marbles his mother sent him as prizes for his students—a sign of his paternal affection never to be forgotten. Happily recalled also is his diary account of his Repatriation to the U.S.—a typical sign of his devotion and interest in his boys.

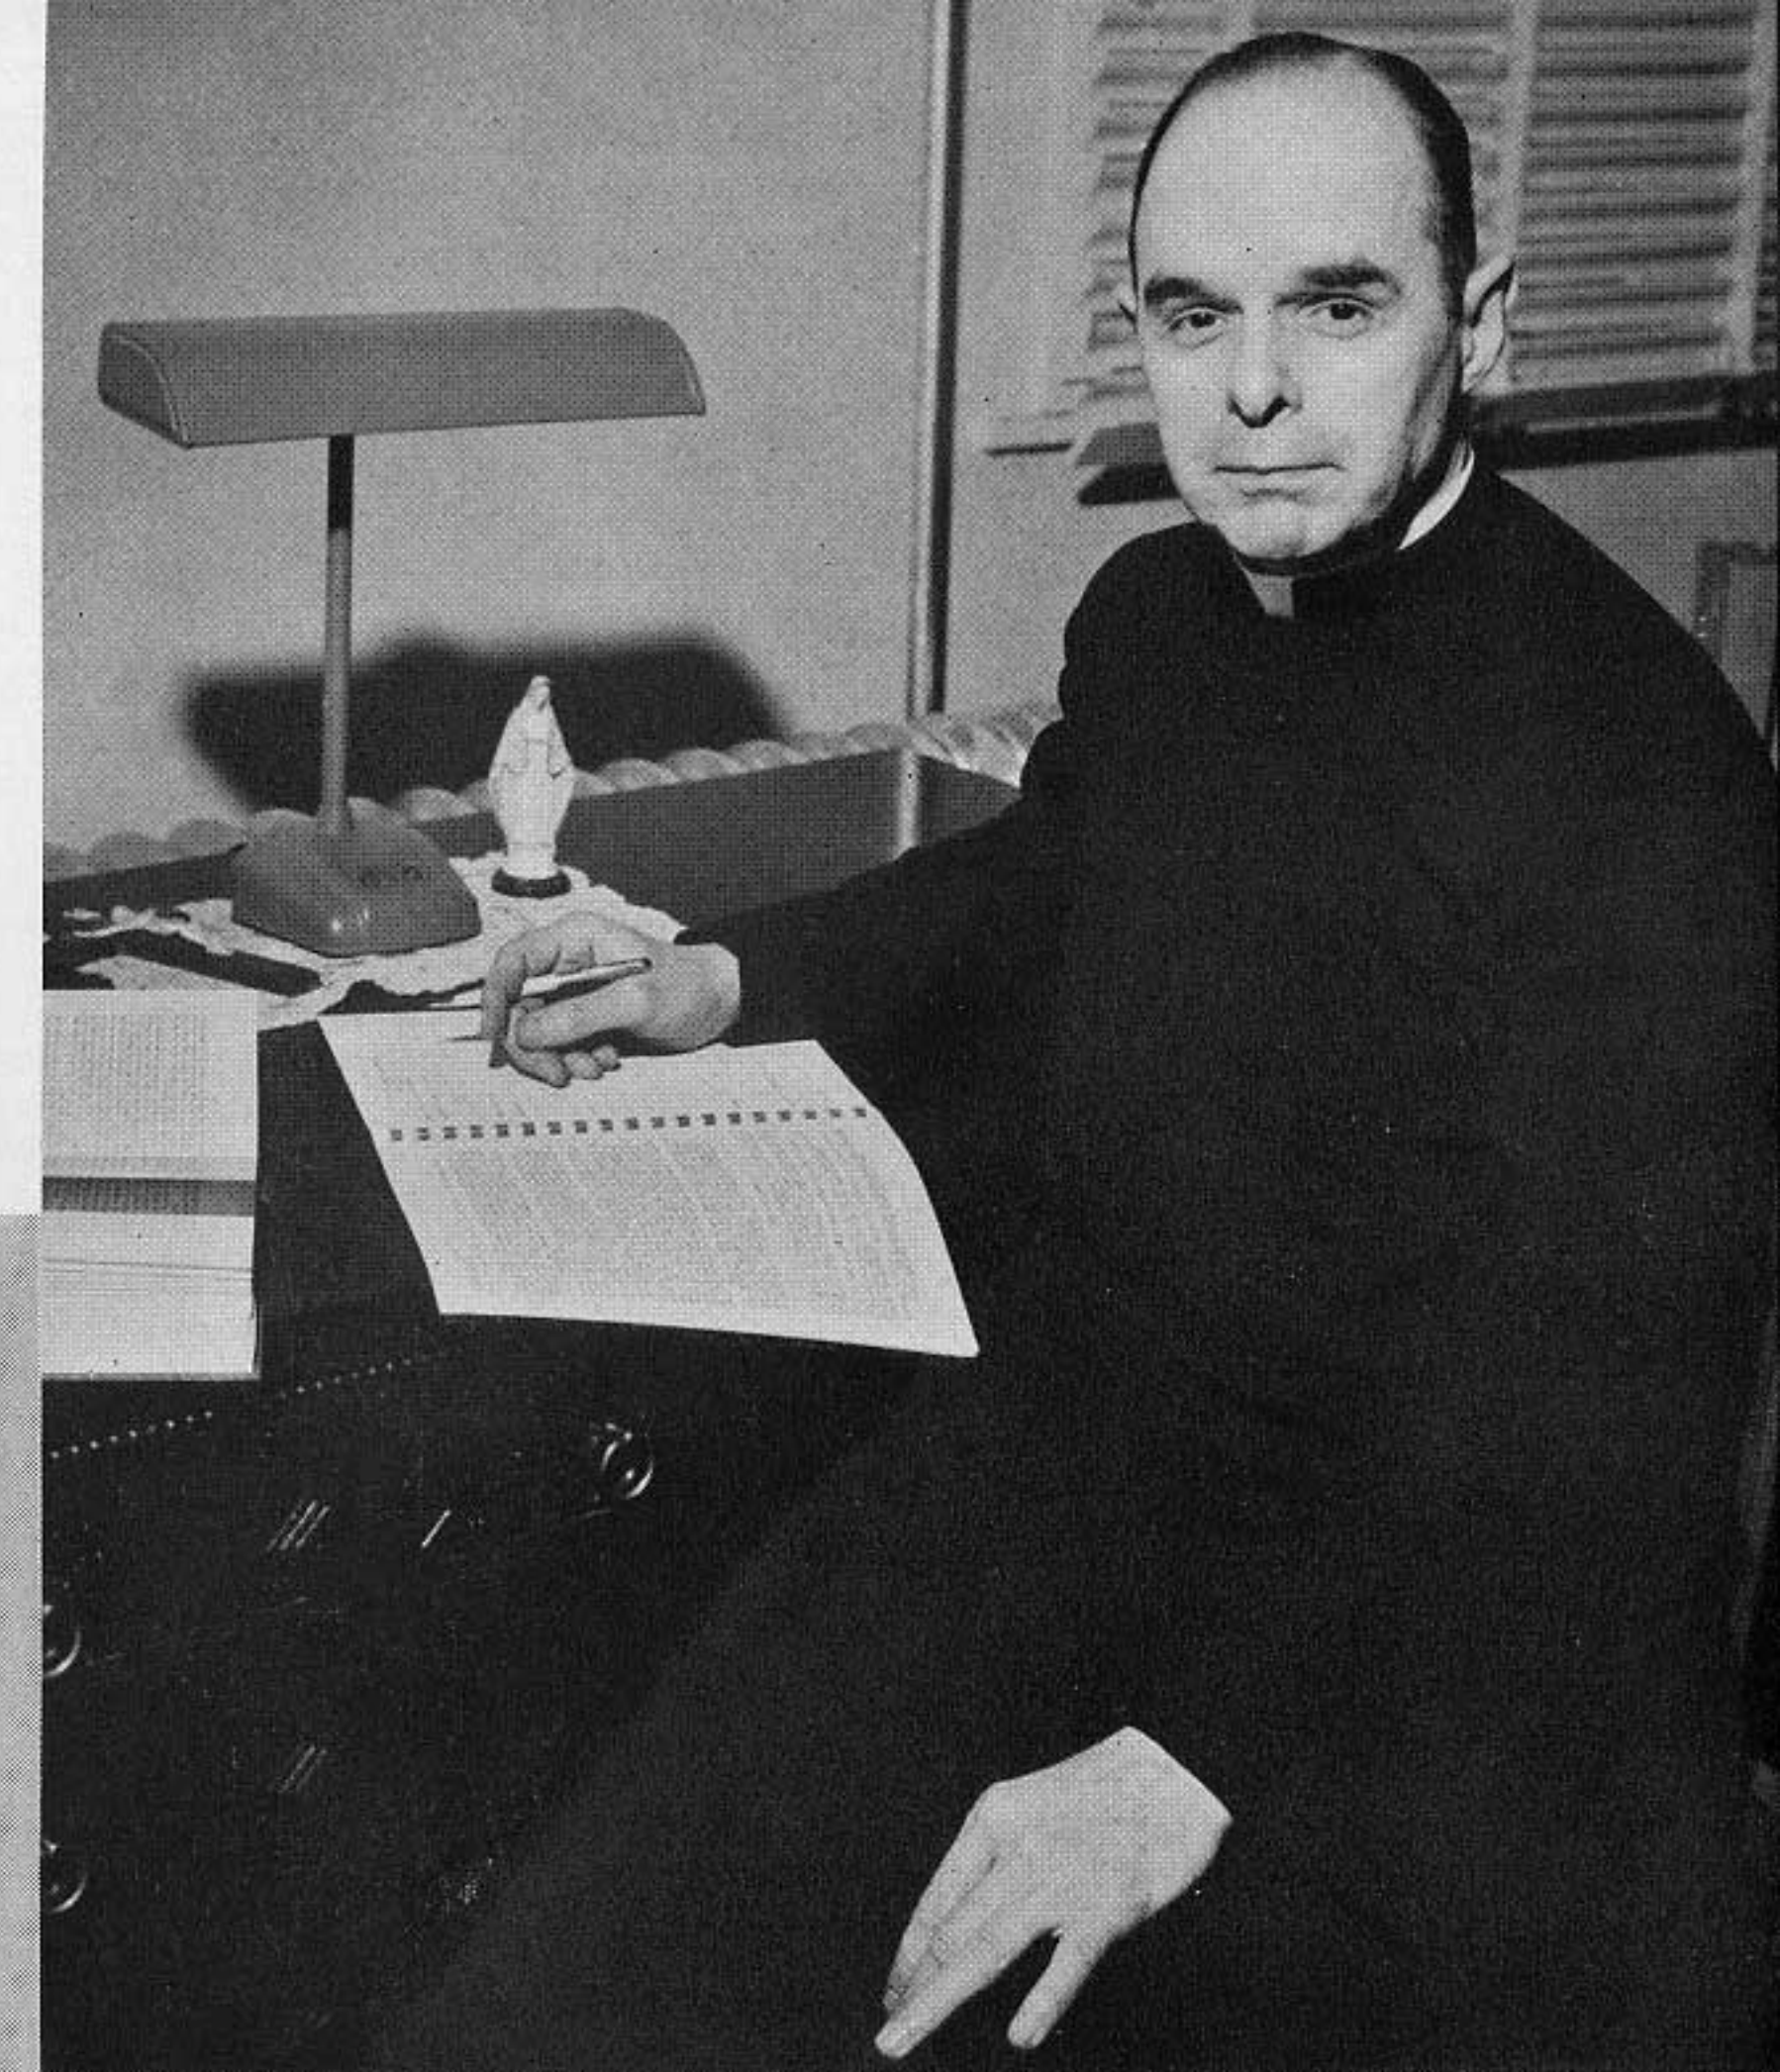

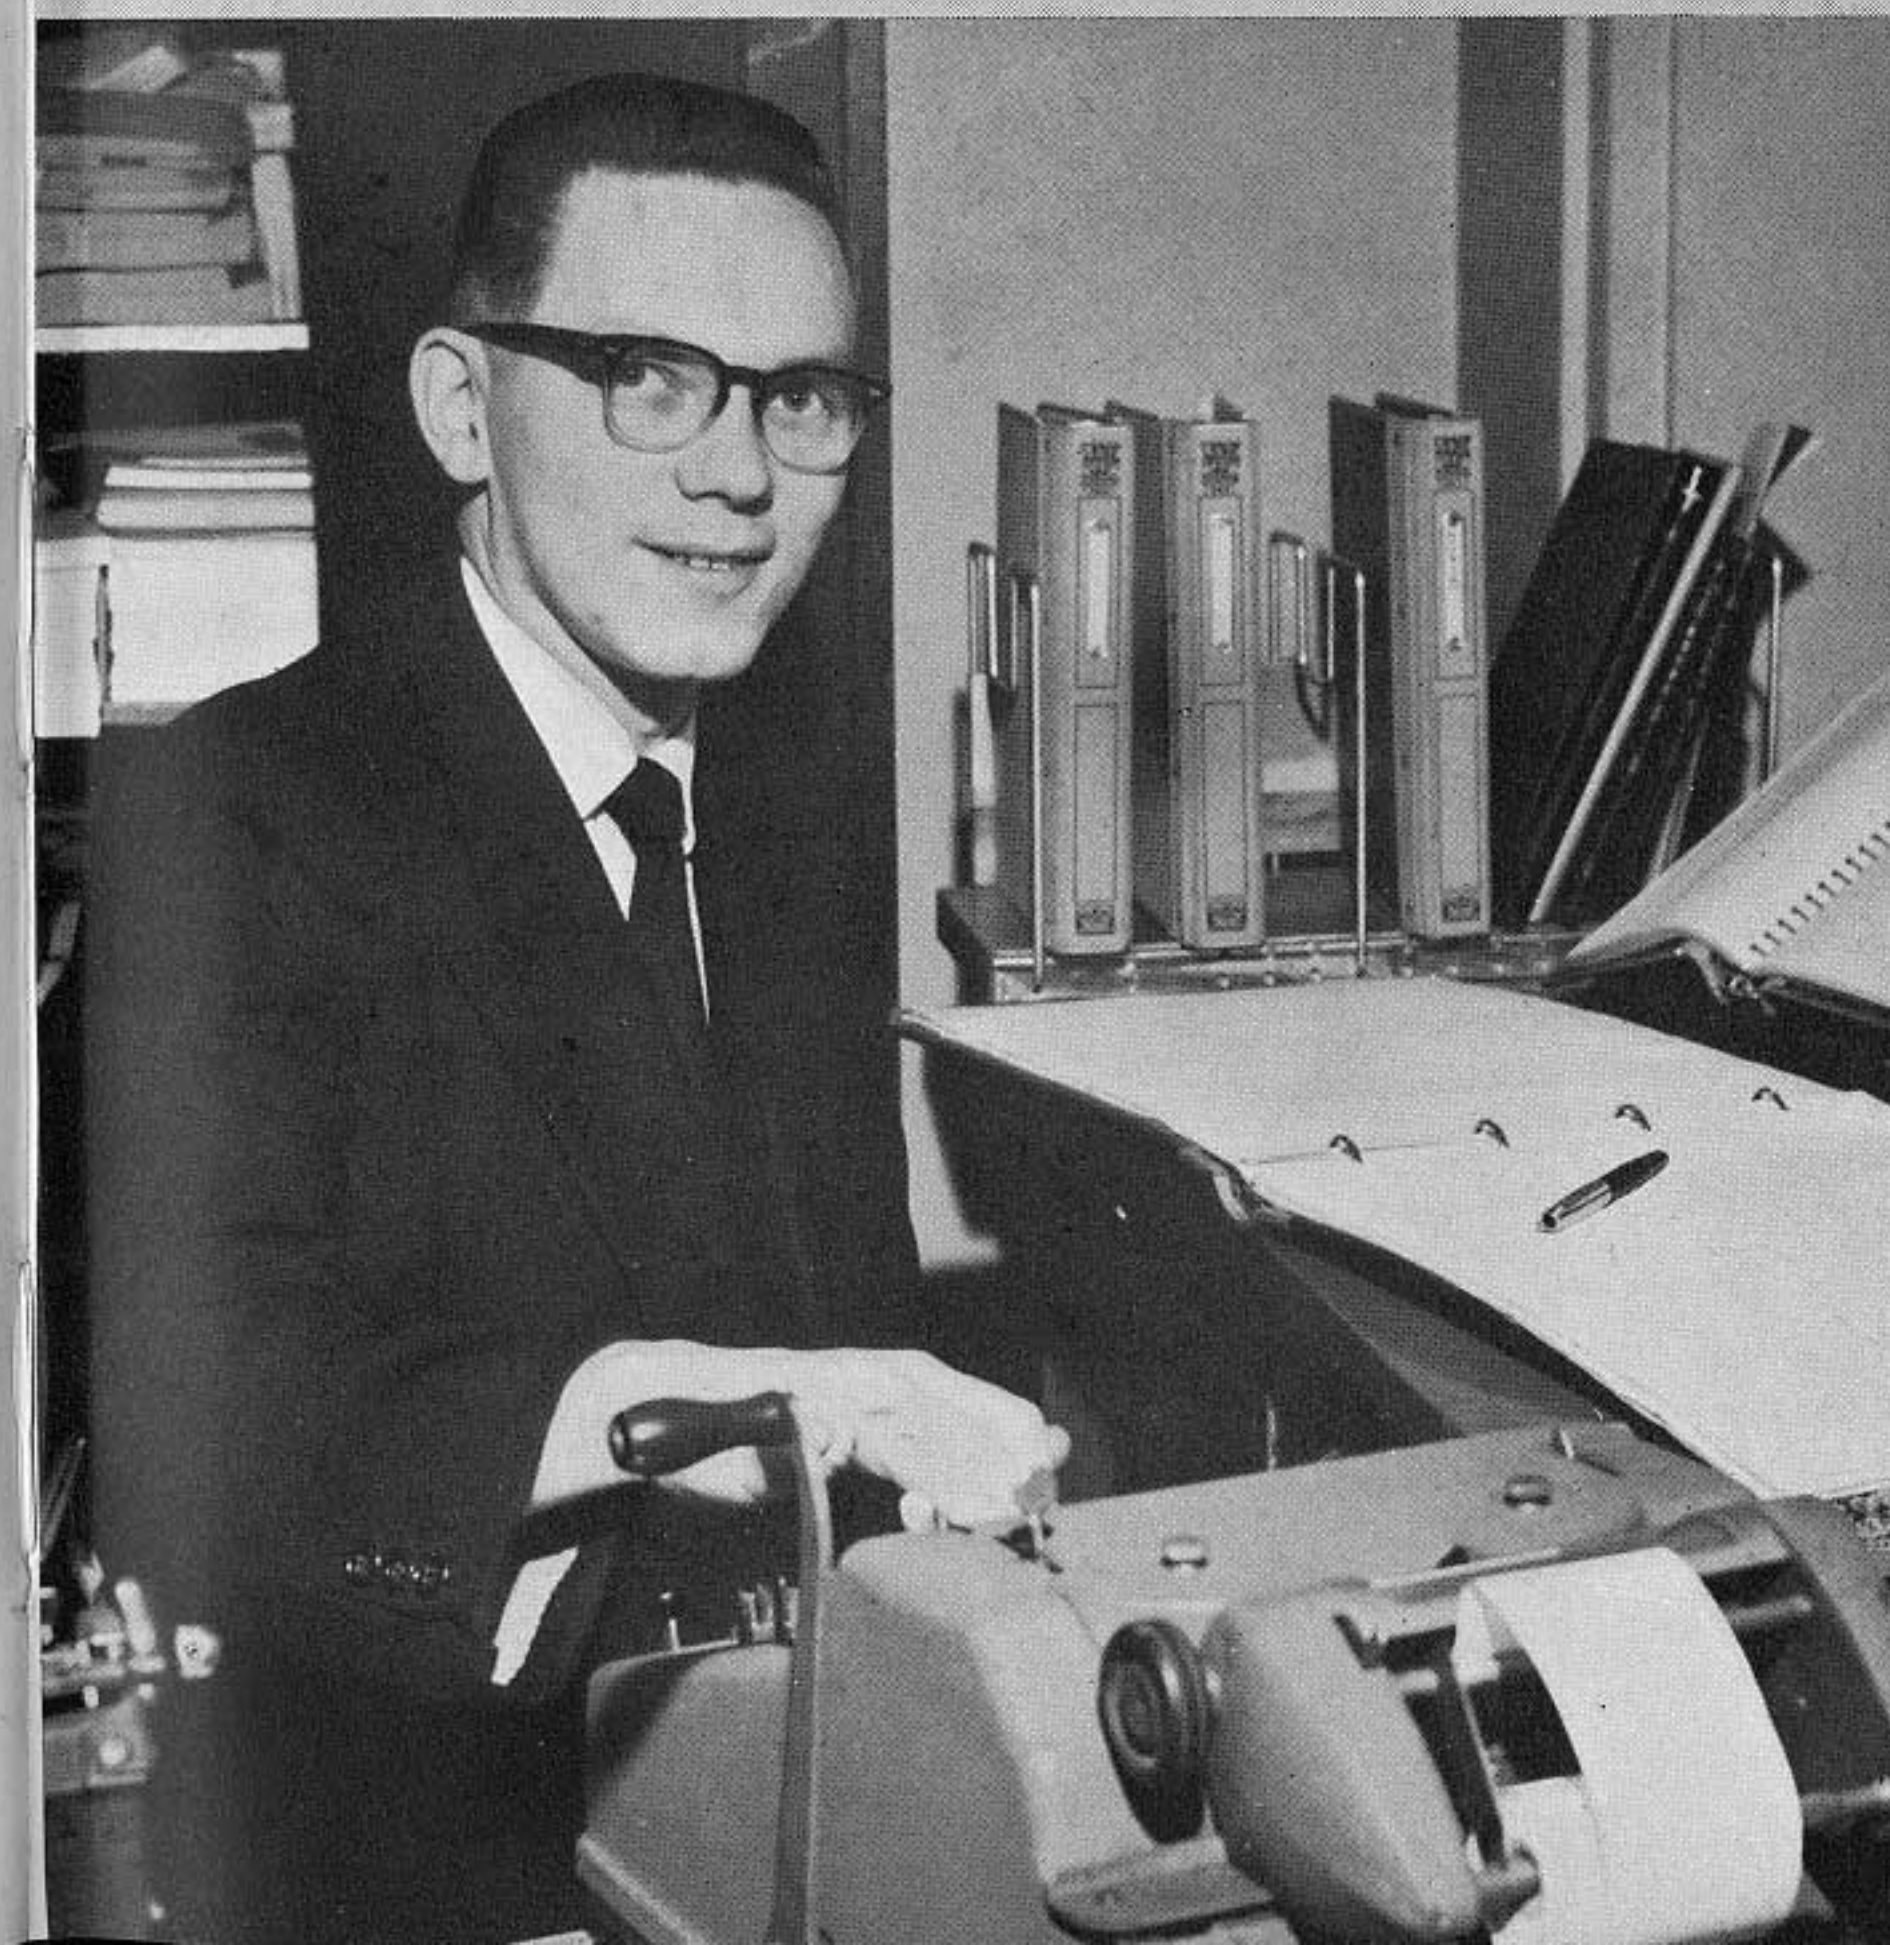

Now our Captain, Brother Francis in good Marianist faith, works with his teammates—his fellow Brothers and his students in close cooperation—to bring about glory to God, honor to Mary, and spiritual salvation to the students of Saint Joseph College.

Superior, Chaplain

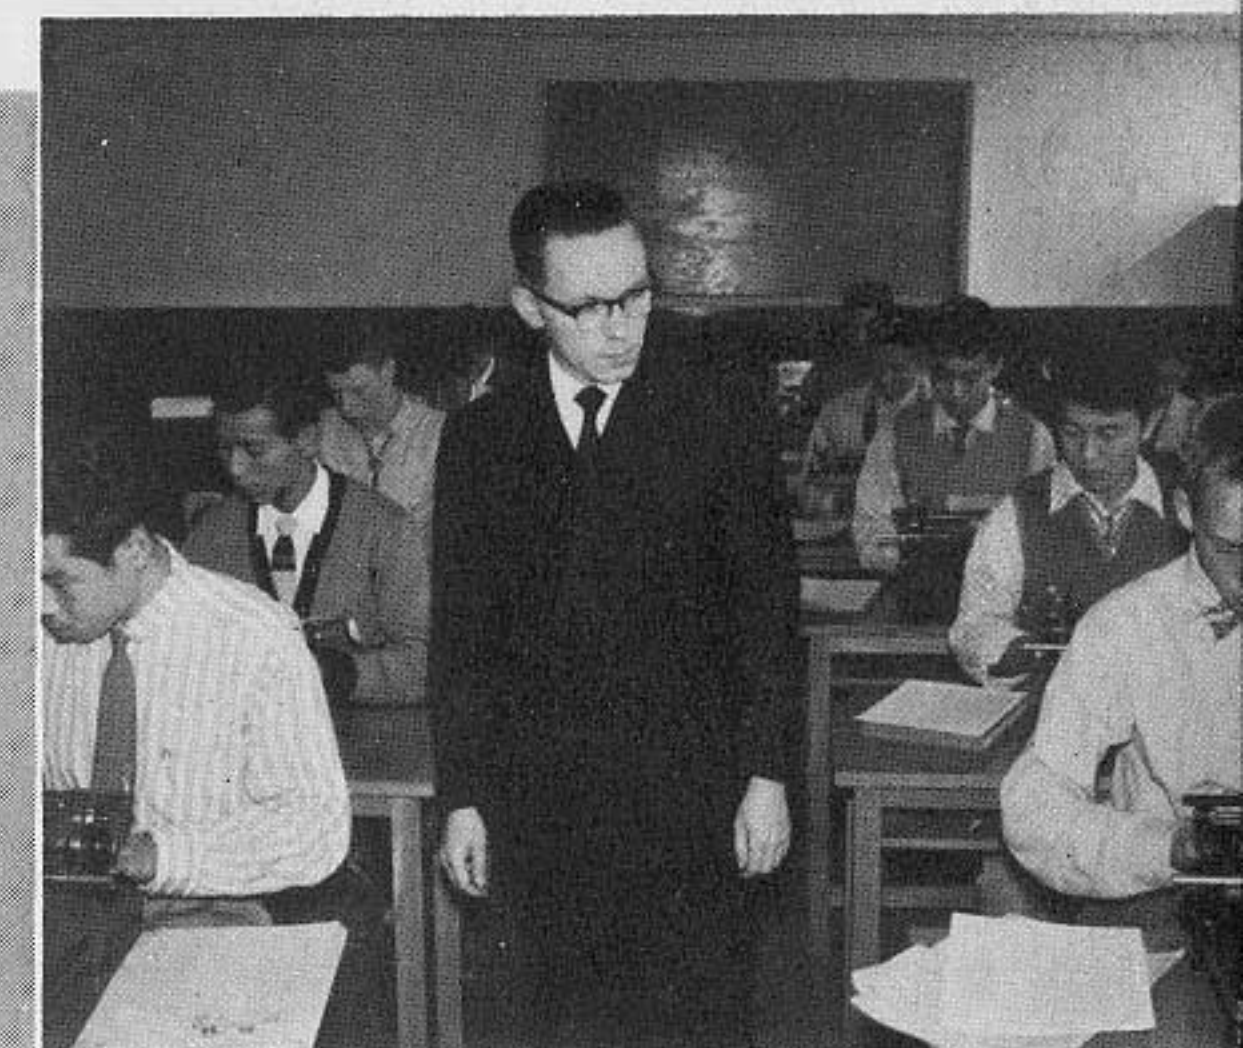

Father Francis Gerber, a native of Cleveland, entered the Society of Mary in 1929. Three years after his ordination in 1945, Father was welcomed to Saint Joseph College where he remained for seven years as Chaplain. In 1956 Father returned to the U.S.A. and to Chaminade High School, Dayton, Ohio, where he celebrated his Silver Jubilee, and supervised Chaminade's sodality functions. Once again in 1958 Father returned to S.J.C. and is presently teaching Religion, English, and Sociology. Besides these educational activities, Father, is the Director of the Marianist Community of Saint Joseph's, the High School Chaplain and the Moderator of the Sodality. To the Seniors and Juniors of his Religion Class Father is very understanding, emphatic, and above all influential. Football is his favorite sport. His counsel to the doubtful is "be unselfish and forgetful of self"—a virtue expressively exemplified in Father Francis.

Brother John J. Sullivan, S. M.

Father Francis W. Gerber, S. M.

Treasurer

Brother John Sullivan was born in Philadelphia. He taught in various Marianist schools in eastern United States. On September 4, 1956 he arrived in Japan and at Saint Joseph College. "Brother John," as his students and fellow teachers call him is the homeroom teacher of the Junior Class and the business instructor of the entire high school division, teaching Typing, Business English, General Business, and Accounting. He is also the Sodality Moderator, Treasurer and Scoutmaster of the International Boys Scouts. With his clear methods of explanation, he has bridged many difficulties with his students. Often stressing that knowledge alone is not the sesame to financial and professional success, Brother John says that the most important successes are won by men who possess, in addition to knowledge, the ability to talk well, to win people, and above all to "sell" their own ideas.

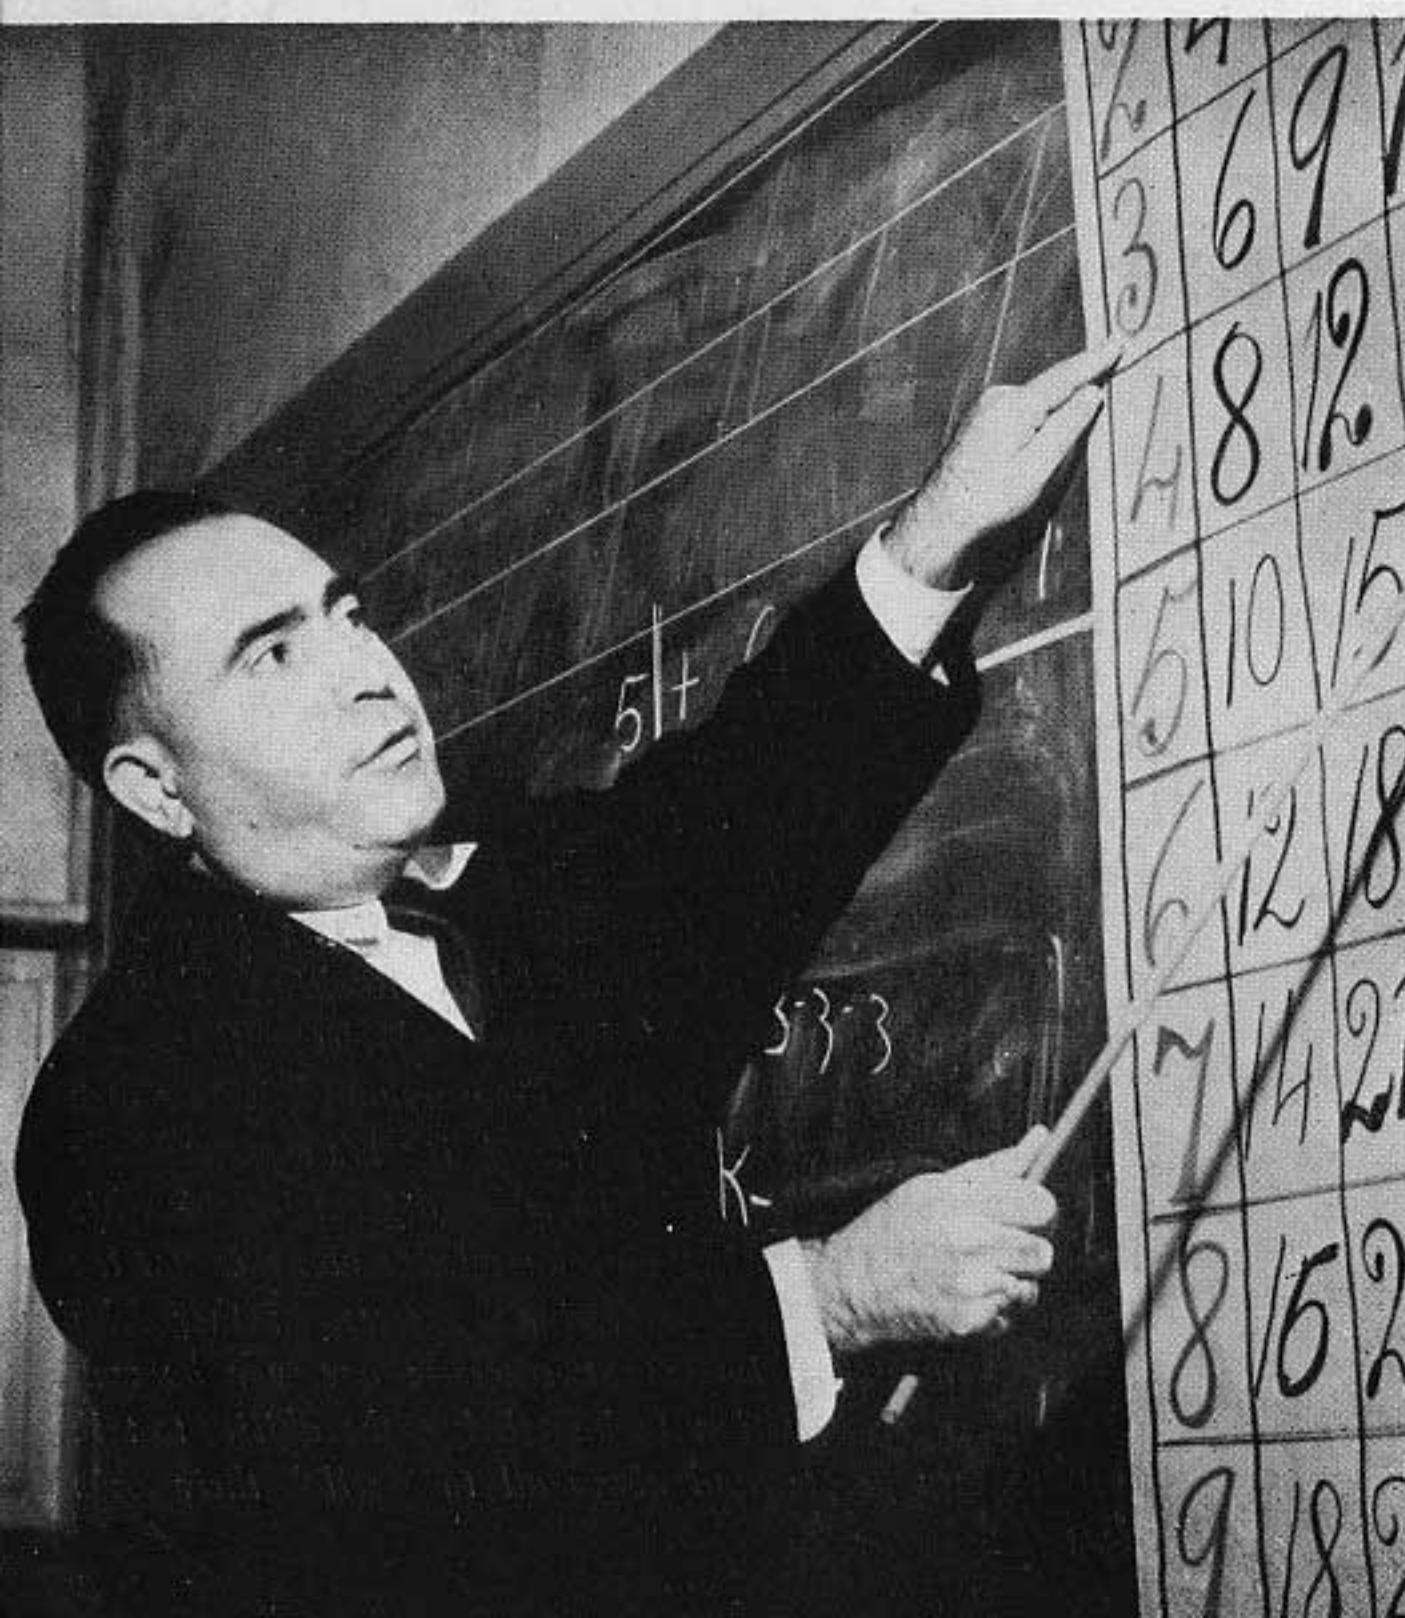

Father Joseph H. Zeinz, S. M.

Father Joseph H. Zeinz was born in New York and arrived at Saint Joseph College in 1955. As director of the Science Department in the High School, Father has enabled many a student to go ahead for higher studies in academic fields. Ministering to souls as the Senior Sodality moderator and directing class as Sophomore homeroom teacher are outstanding services that strengthen his paternal influence over the students.

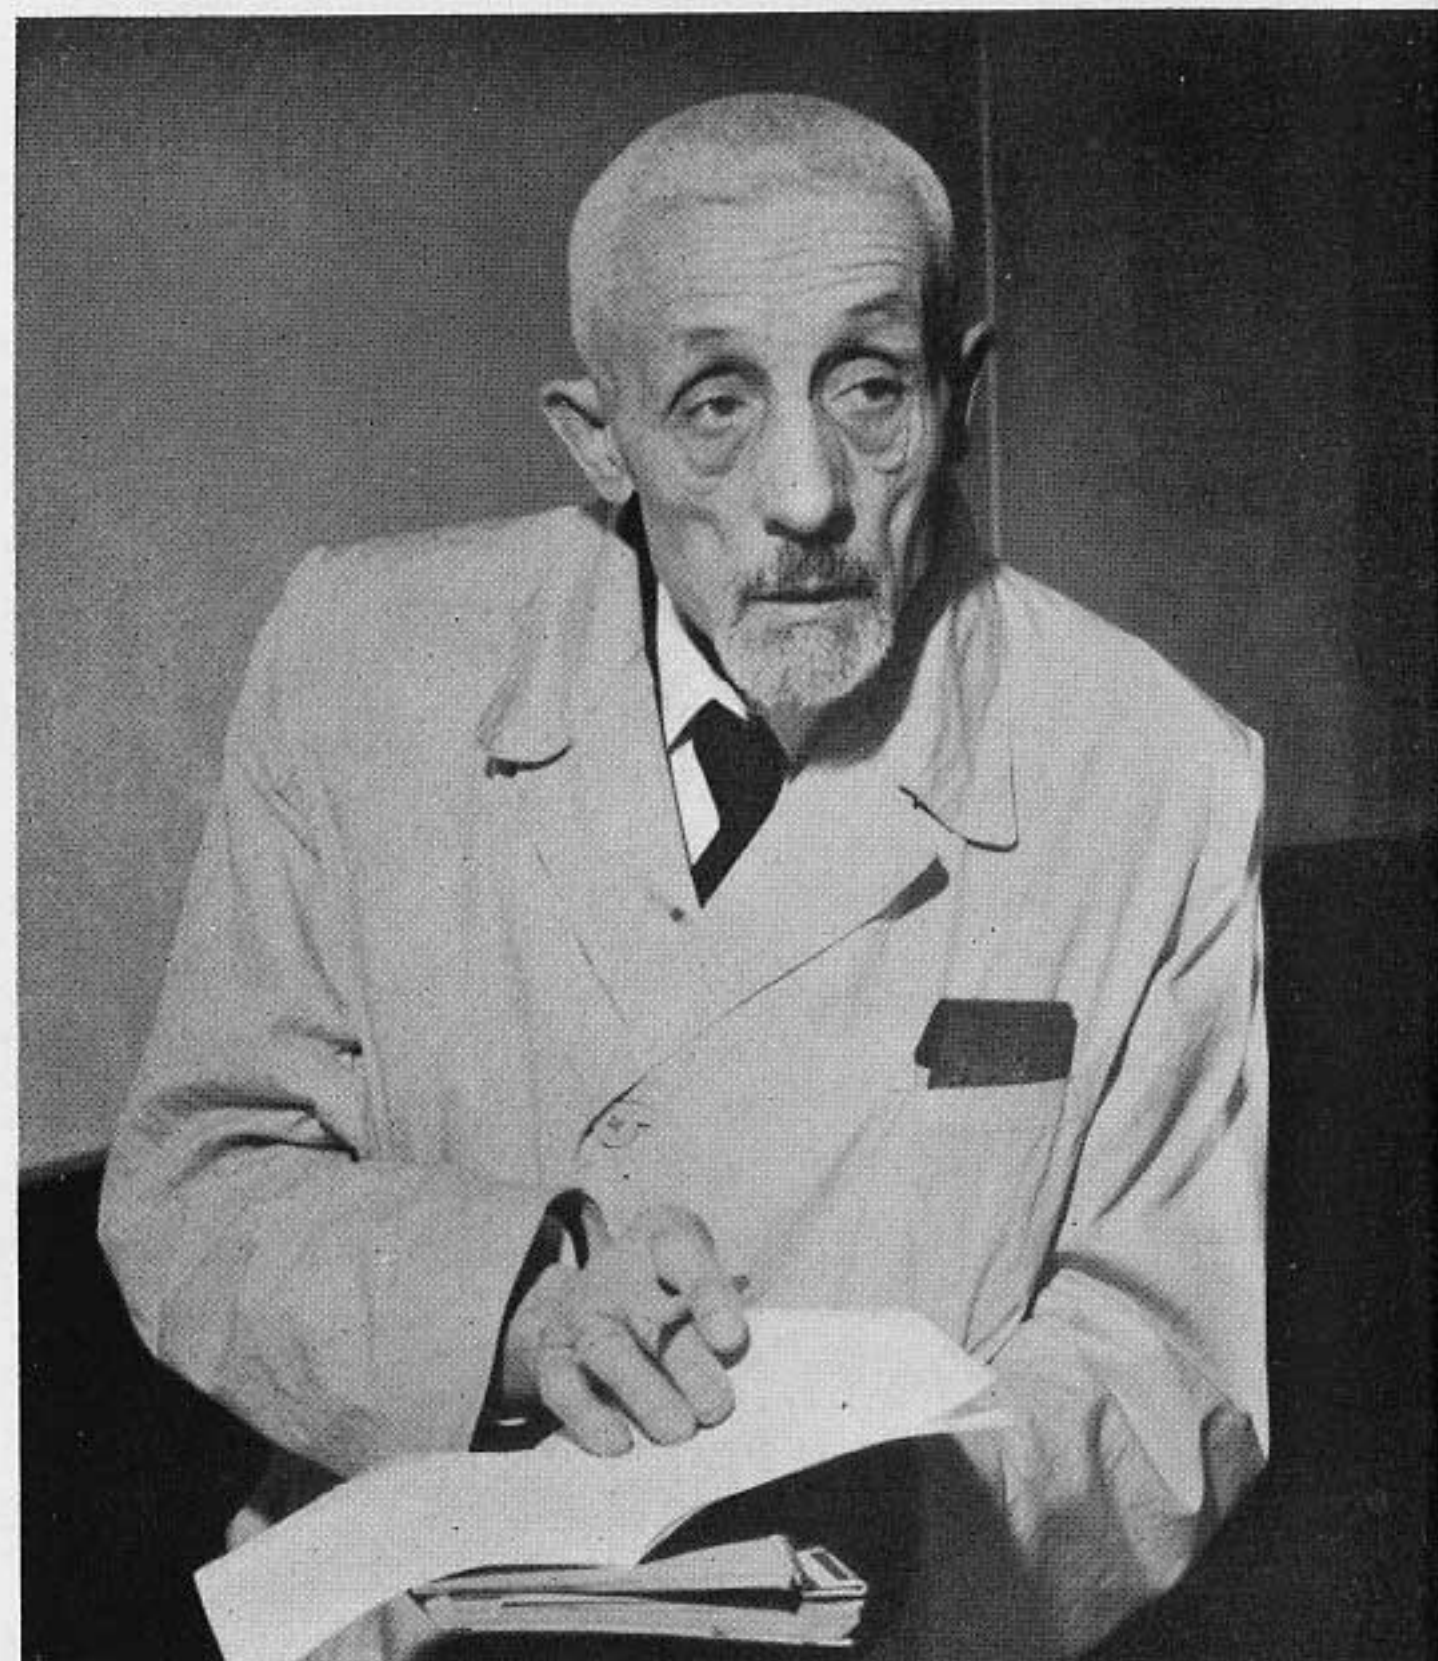

Brother Daniel Calvo, S. M.

Rotund Brother Daniel Calvo, born in Spain, arrived at Saint Joseph College in 1952. Besides being the Third Grade homeroom teacher, Brother Daniel who often is seen waving the magic wand of obedience, teaches Arithmetic, Spelling, Penmanship, Religion and Science. Educating young men to be model gentlemen requires much of his time, energy, and patience.

Mrs. Ishi Yasuoka

Mrs. Ishi Yasuoka was born in Tokyo, and came to Saint Joseph College in October of 1954 to help the Marianists educate the students of the grade school department. She specializes in the Japanese language. Possessor of pedagogical instinct, Mrs. Yasuoka is stern, accepts no nonsense from her students, but is to be seen smiling as she lends a helping hand to the school secretary. We find her hobbies Chinese character writing, and tea-making.

Brother Joseph Gaessler, S. M.

Since 1902 Brother Gaessler, French by nationality, has taught in various Marianist schools throughout Japan. At present he handles Grammar and Geography in the Grade School Department. His characteristic tenacity and vividness of explanation are in sharp contrast to his mature age. Early last year Brother Gaessler celebrated his Diamond Jubilee—a salient marker of his 60 years as a Marianist Educator.

Brother Aloysius Soden, S. M.

Brother Eulogio Cocuera, S. M.

Brother Eulogio Cocuera born in Spain entered the Society of Mary in Saragosa in 1942 and came to Japan and Saint Joseph College on January 5, 1951. Presently the homeroom instructor of the seventh grade, Brother Eulogio directs the International Choir of S.J.C. Under Maestro Brother Eulogio's baton the harmony of S.J.C.'s youthful voices has brought the Marianist School many musical awards. Brother plays soccer occasionally either for S.J.C. or for both teams at the same time as a referee. To the students he says, "With God's grace and our goodwill we can always succeed."

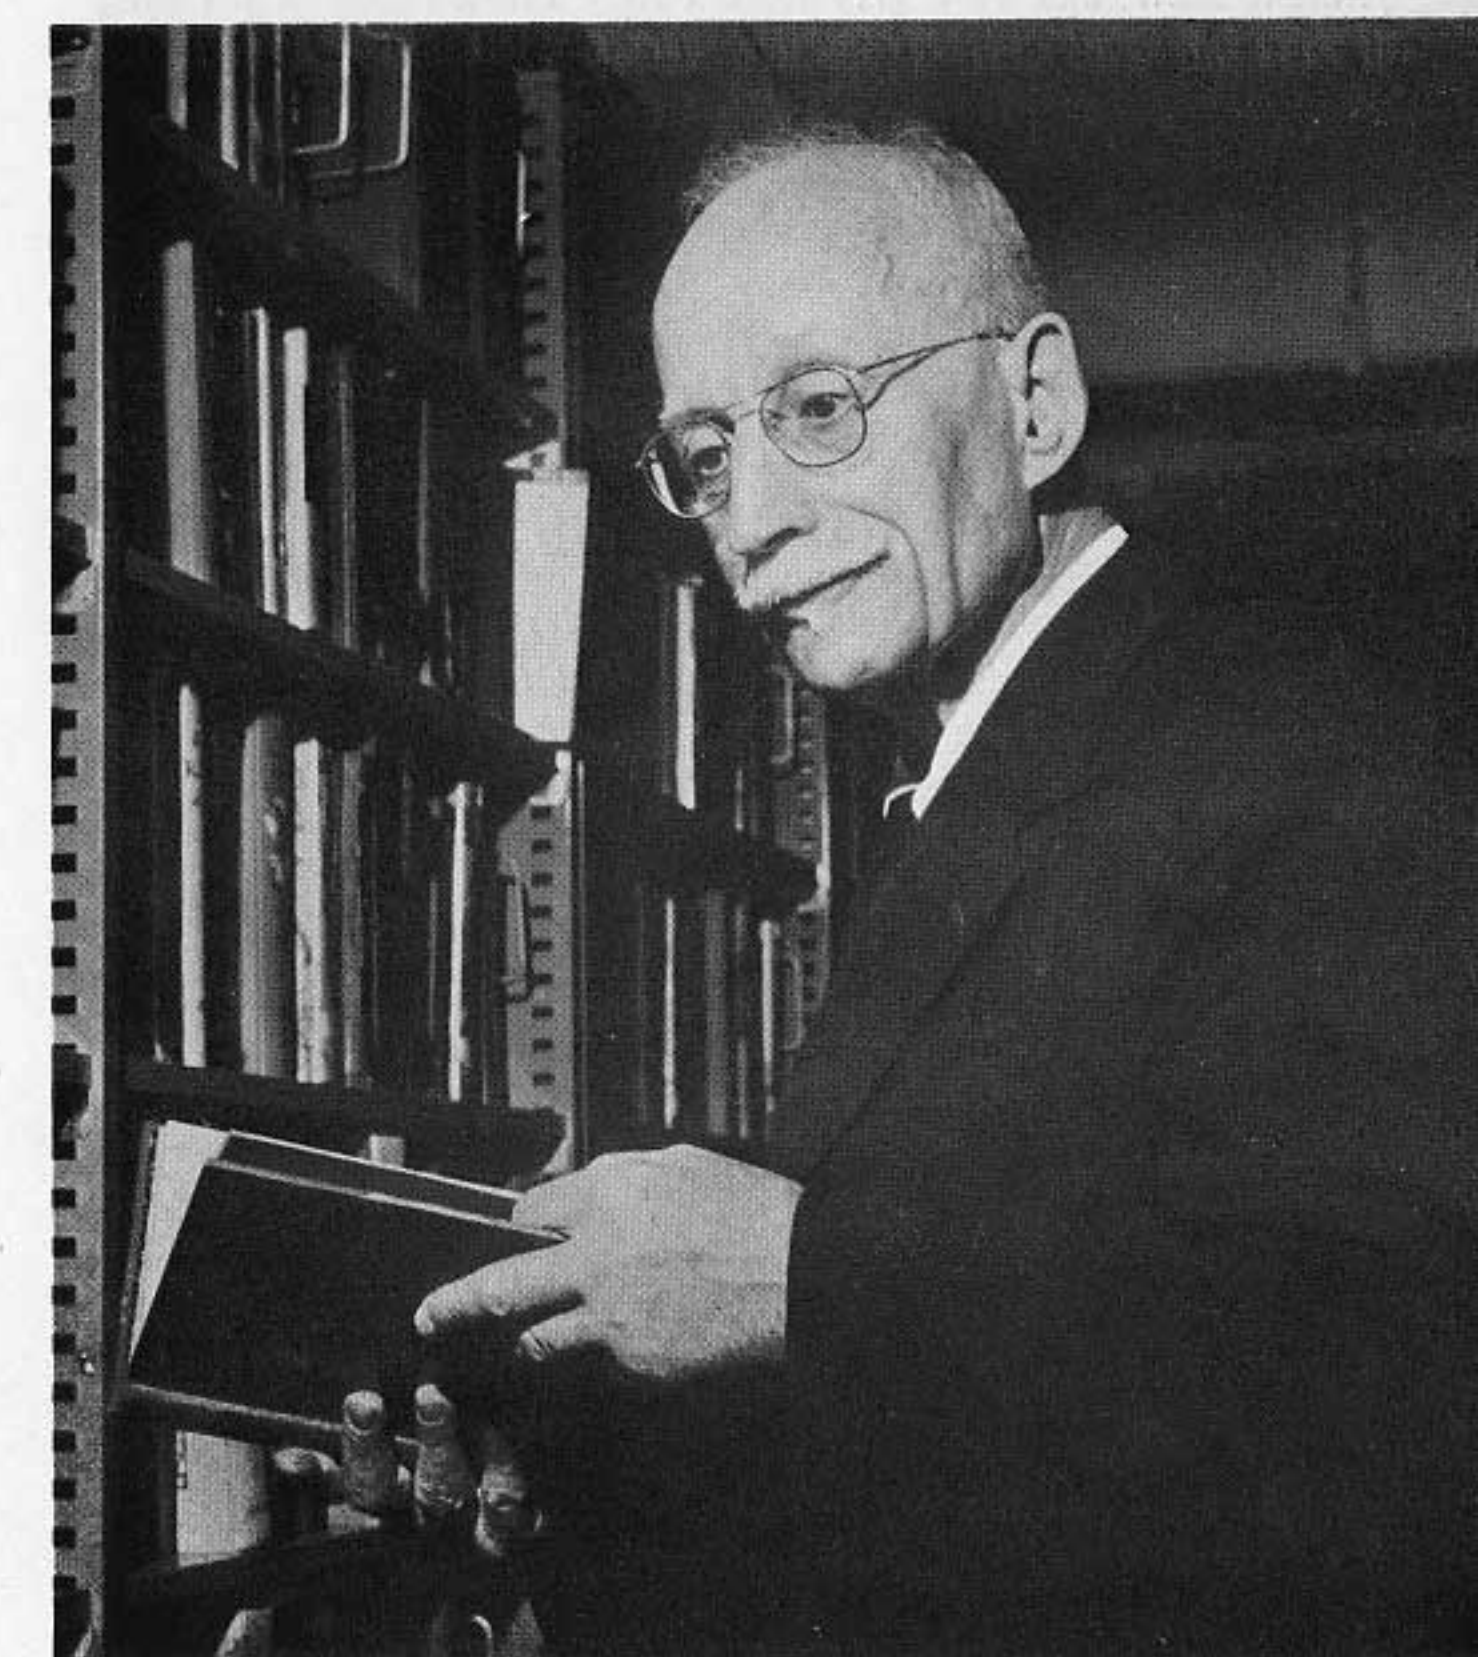

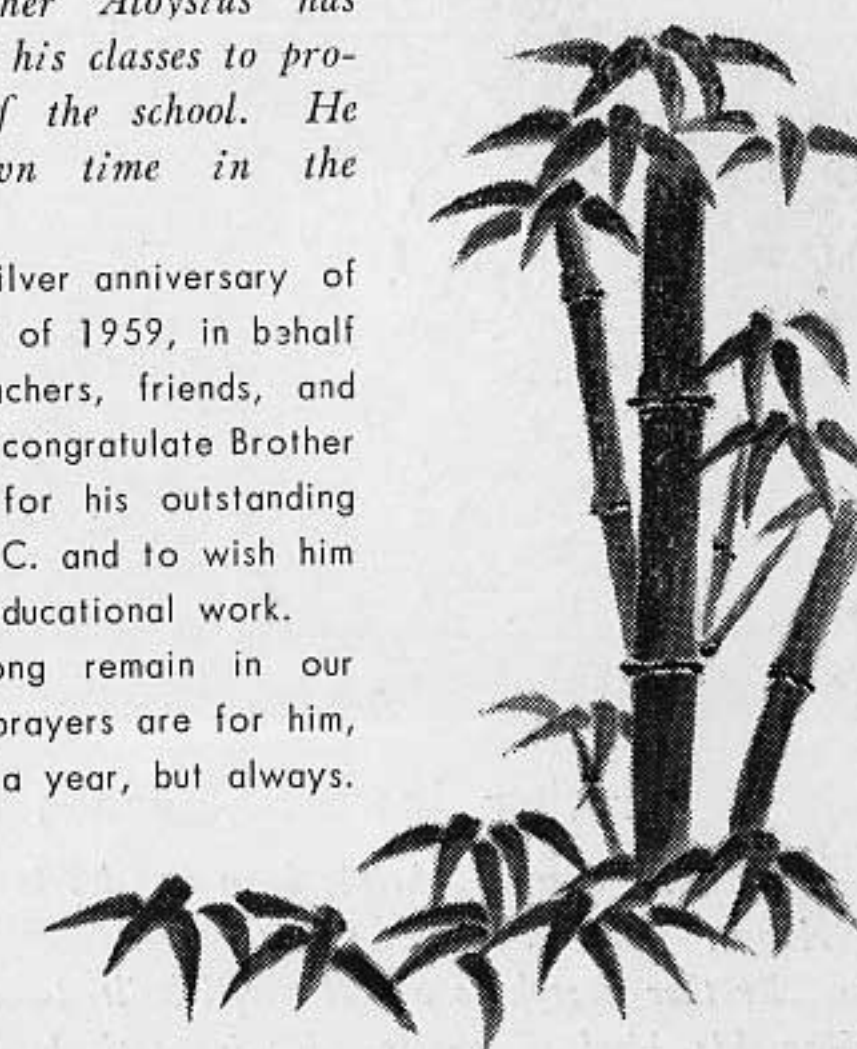

Brother Aloysius Soden, first post-war Principal of St. Joseph College and the present homeroom instructor of the Senior Class, will soon complete a quarter of a century of missionary educational service in Japan. He first arrived at St. Joseph College in 1929 and remained here four years. Then he was appointed to the Kaisei School in Nagasaki, where he taught eight years. In 1941 he returned to St. Joseph's. He was repatriated during the Second World War, and in 1946 he was reassigned to the College as Director. Ten years later he again went back to the United States on leave and for advanced studies. In August 1957 he was once more at St. Joseph College as Head of the High School English Department. Brother Aloysius was also the School Librarian, in which capacity he was instrumental in the acquisition of an additional 2,500 volumes. Presently Brother Soden is the Guidance Director.

For several years Brother Aloysius has labored most earnestly to assist his classes to produce yearbooks representative of the school. He unstintingly gave of his own time in the "Forward" ventures.

On the occasion of his silver anniversary of service in Japan, the Senior Class of 1959, in behalf of his fellow Brothers and teachers, friends, and students, takes this opportunity to congratulate Brother Aloysius cordially and gratefully for his outstanding Marianist devotion here at S.J.C. and to wish him many more fruitful years in his educational work.

Brother Aloysius will long remain in our memories; all our hopes and prayers are for him, not for just a day, nor for just a year, but always.

Brother Charles Schermesser, S. M.

Brother Charles arrived in Japan in 1908. For over half a century he has educated the people of this land. A great part of his Marianist years was spent at the Gyosei in Tokyo and at the Meisei in Osaka. World War II was the catalyst by which Brother Charles entered Saint Joseph College. Formerly our French and typing tutor, he is presently the school librarian and one of the pillars of S.J.C. His warm smile and helpful hand have aided many a youthful seeker of wisdom.

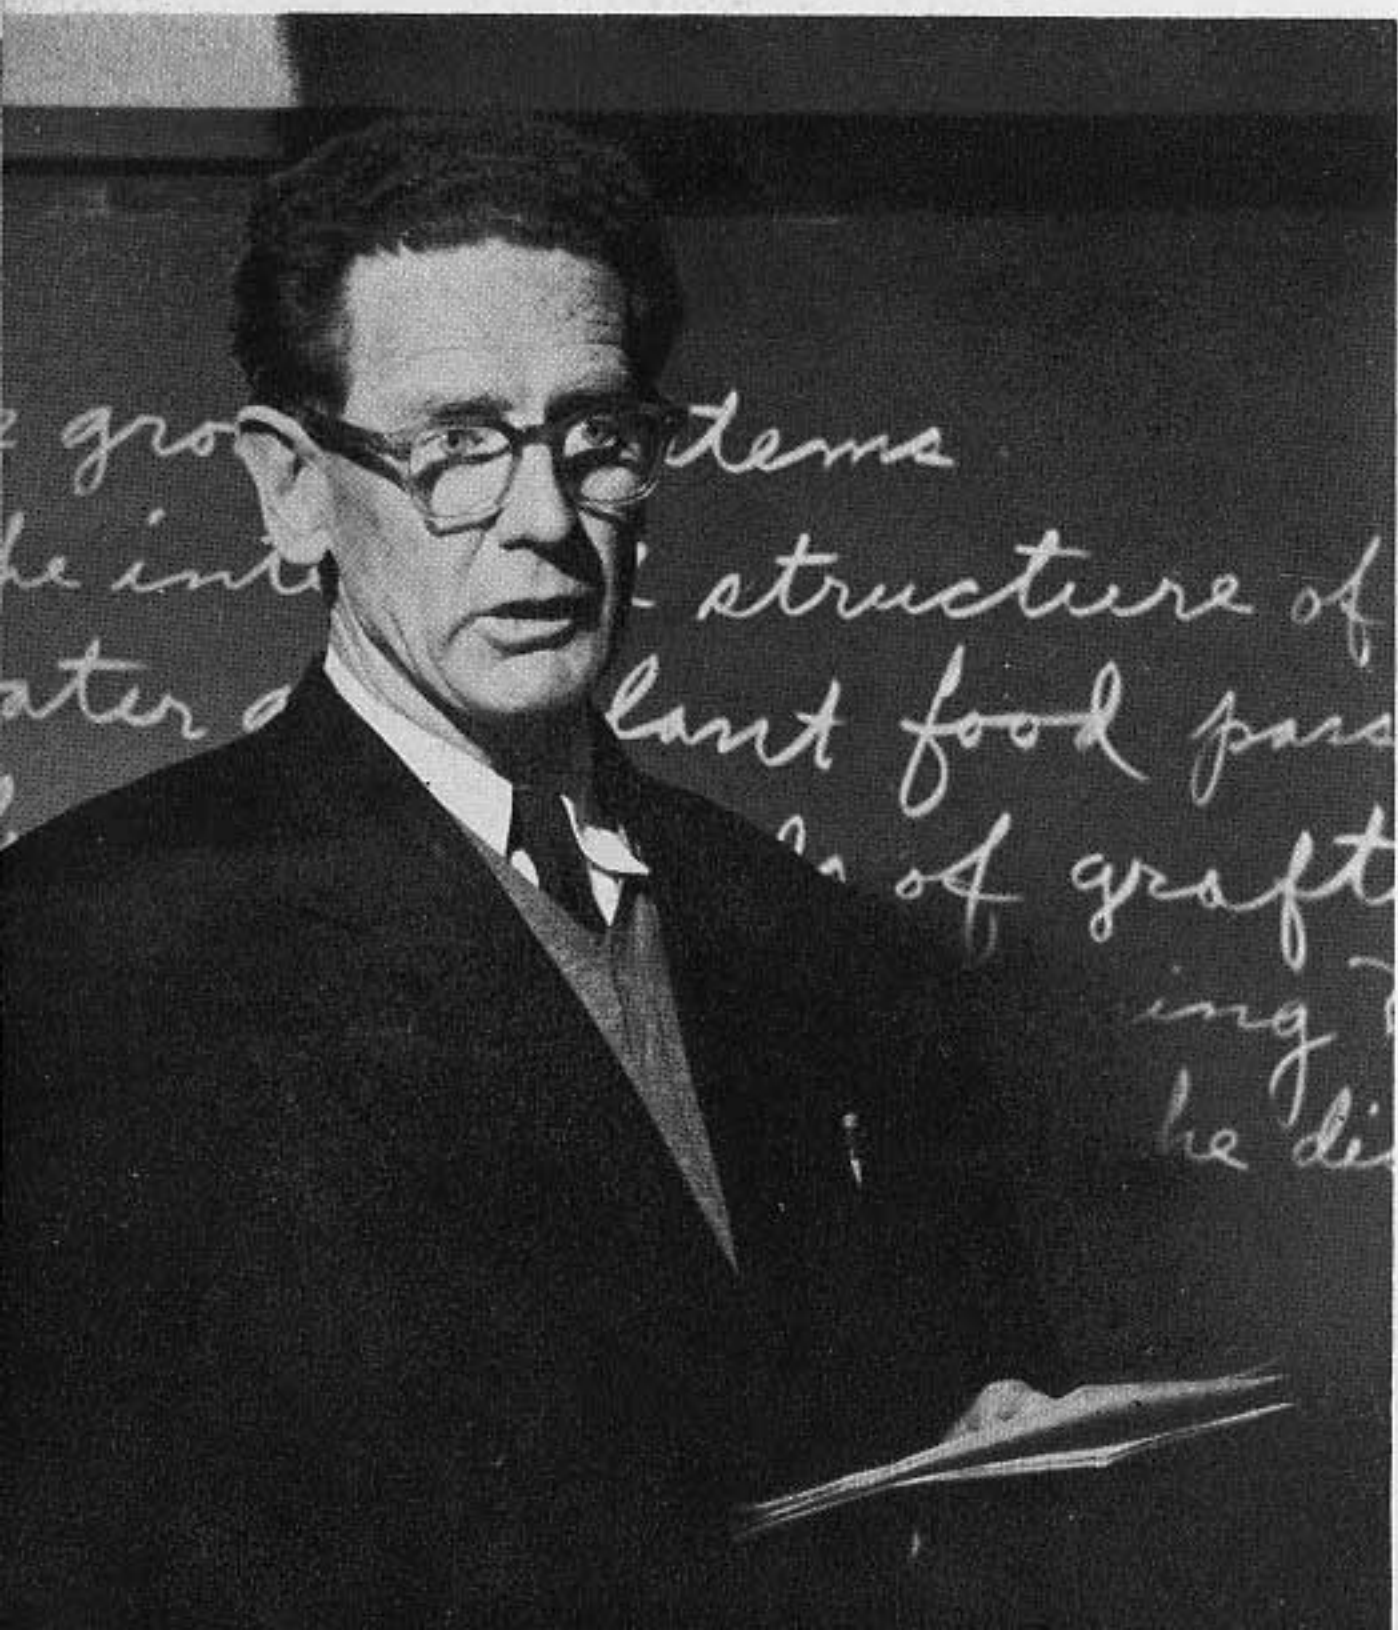

Brother Joseph Scheible, S. M.

Brother Joseph Scheible born in Cleveland joined the Society in August 1946, and was sent to Saint Joseph College three years ago. Brother Joseph is a tall, well-built teacher who finds bike riding his kind of sports. He is particularly characterized by a pleasant smile, and by a grey woolen scarf thrown around his neck during the cold days of winter. He is quiet and devoted to the grade school boys who are his direct concern.

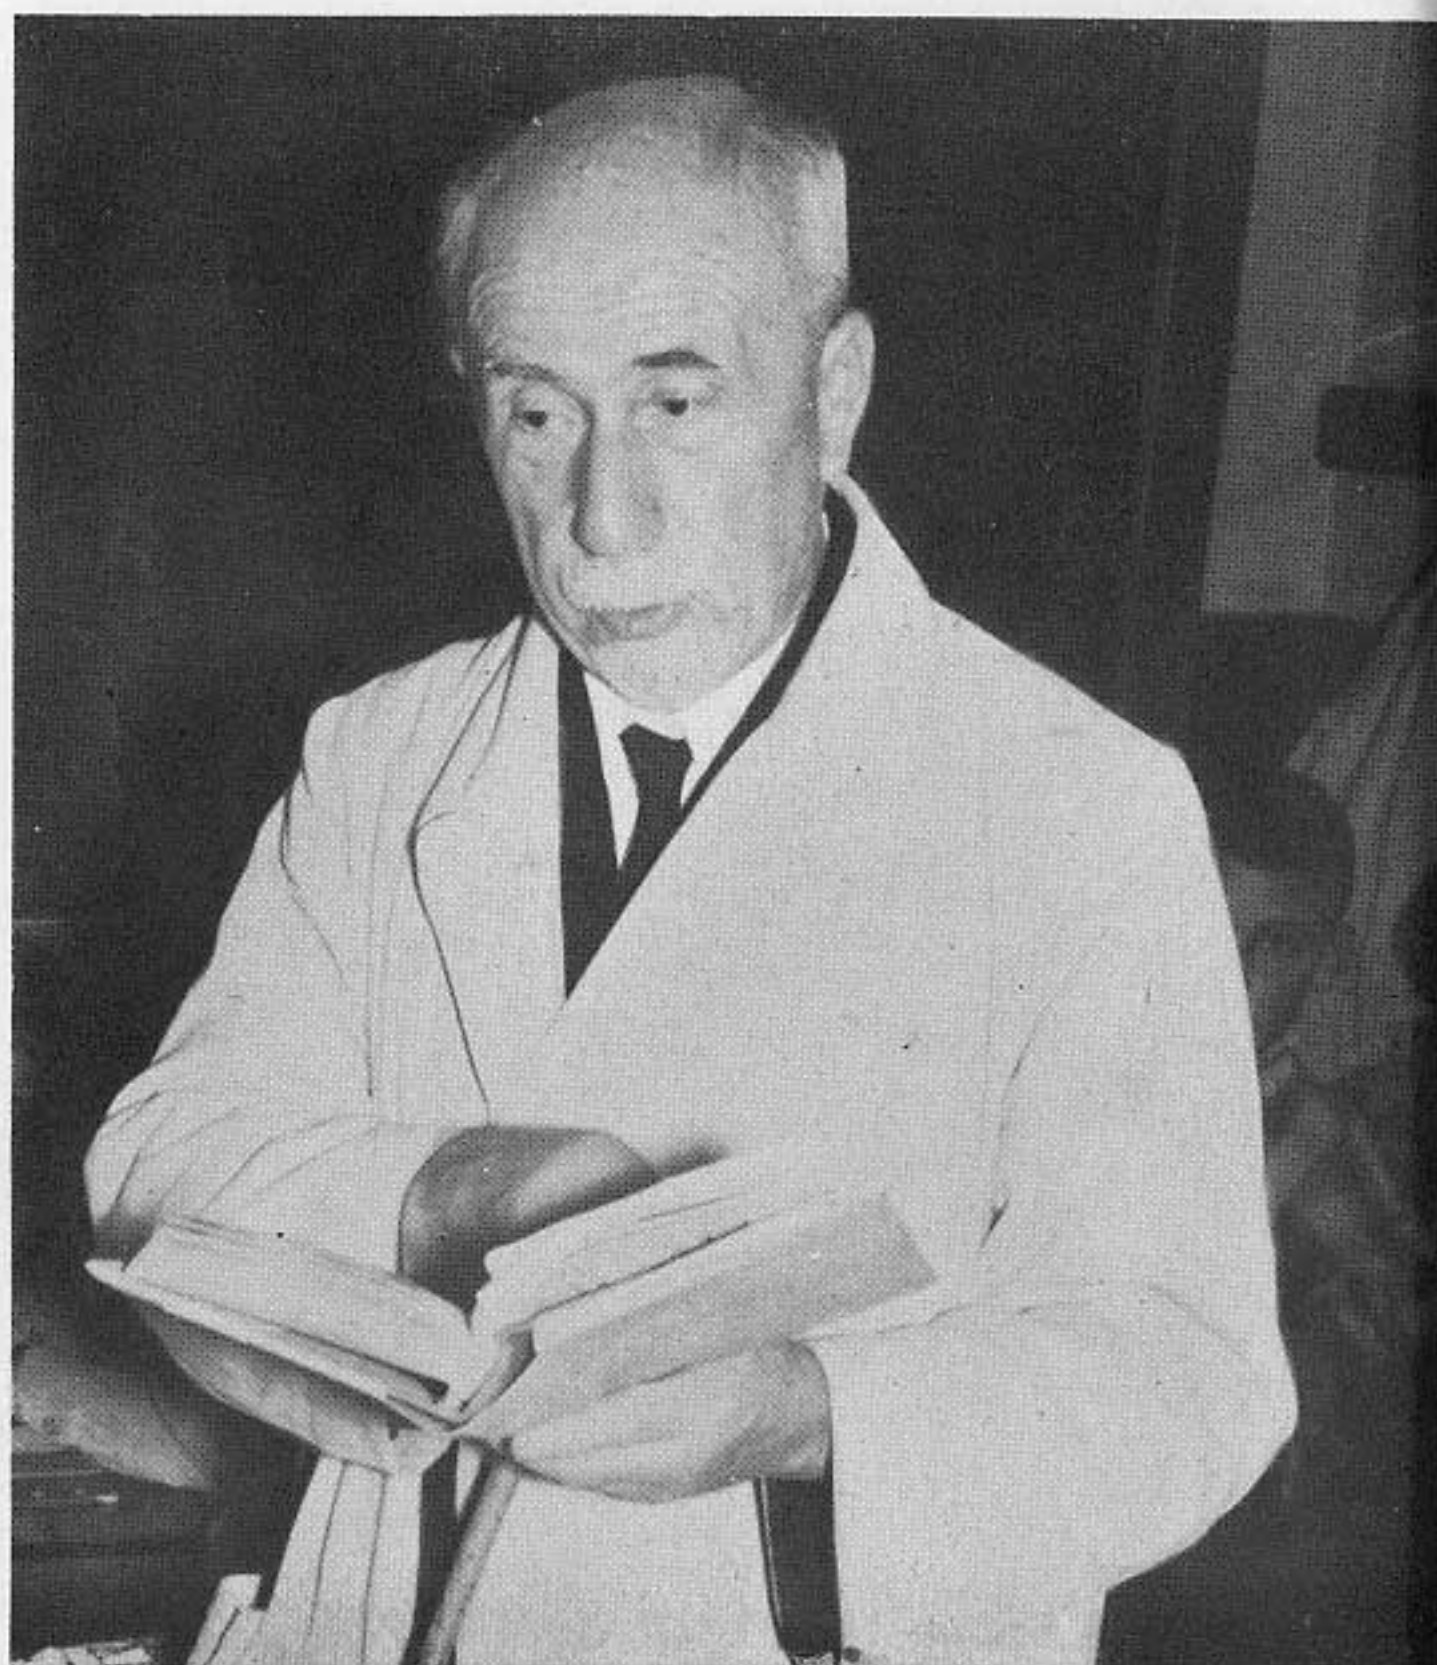

Brother Peter Dames, S. M.

Brother Peter Dames had been at Saint Joseph during the pre-war years and rejoined the college in 1957 to take up the position of homeroom of the ninth grade. Subjects such as World History, Government, Biology, and Ethics are being imbibed and digested by the student through the patient instructions of Brother. Procurator for the school is another duty that occupies his crammed schedule.

Mrs. Ume Aoki

Mrs. Ume Aoki, who was born in Shizuoka, came to Saint Joseph College in October of 1955 to offer her services to train Japanese students to fluency in their mother tongue. She conducts her classes in a characteristic manner, encouraging her students to study hard. Sightseeing of ancient temples and architecture in Japan holds her greatest interest. The art of Chinese character handwriting and the Japanese theater, Kabuki, are her favorite pastimes.

Brother Charles Imhoff, S. M.

Brother Charles born in Colmar, France, entered the Society of May in 1900 at the age of fourteen, and eight years later came to Japan. He was first welcomed at Saint Joseph College in 1917. A French patriot, genteel Brother Charles celebrated his Golden Jubilee in 1954. Brother Charles likes baseball, if not playing it then at least watching it.

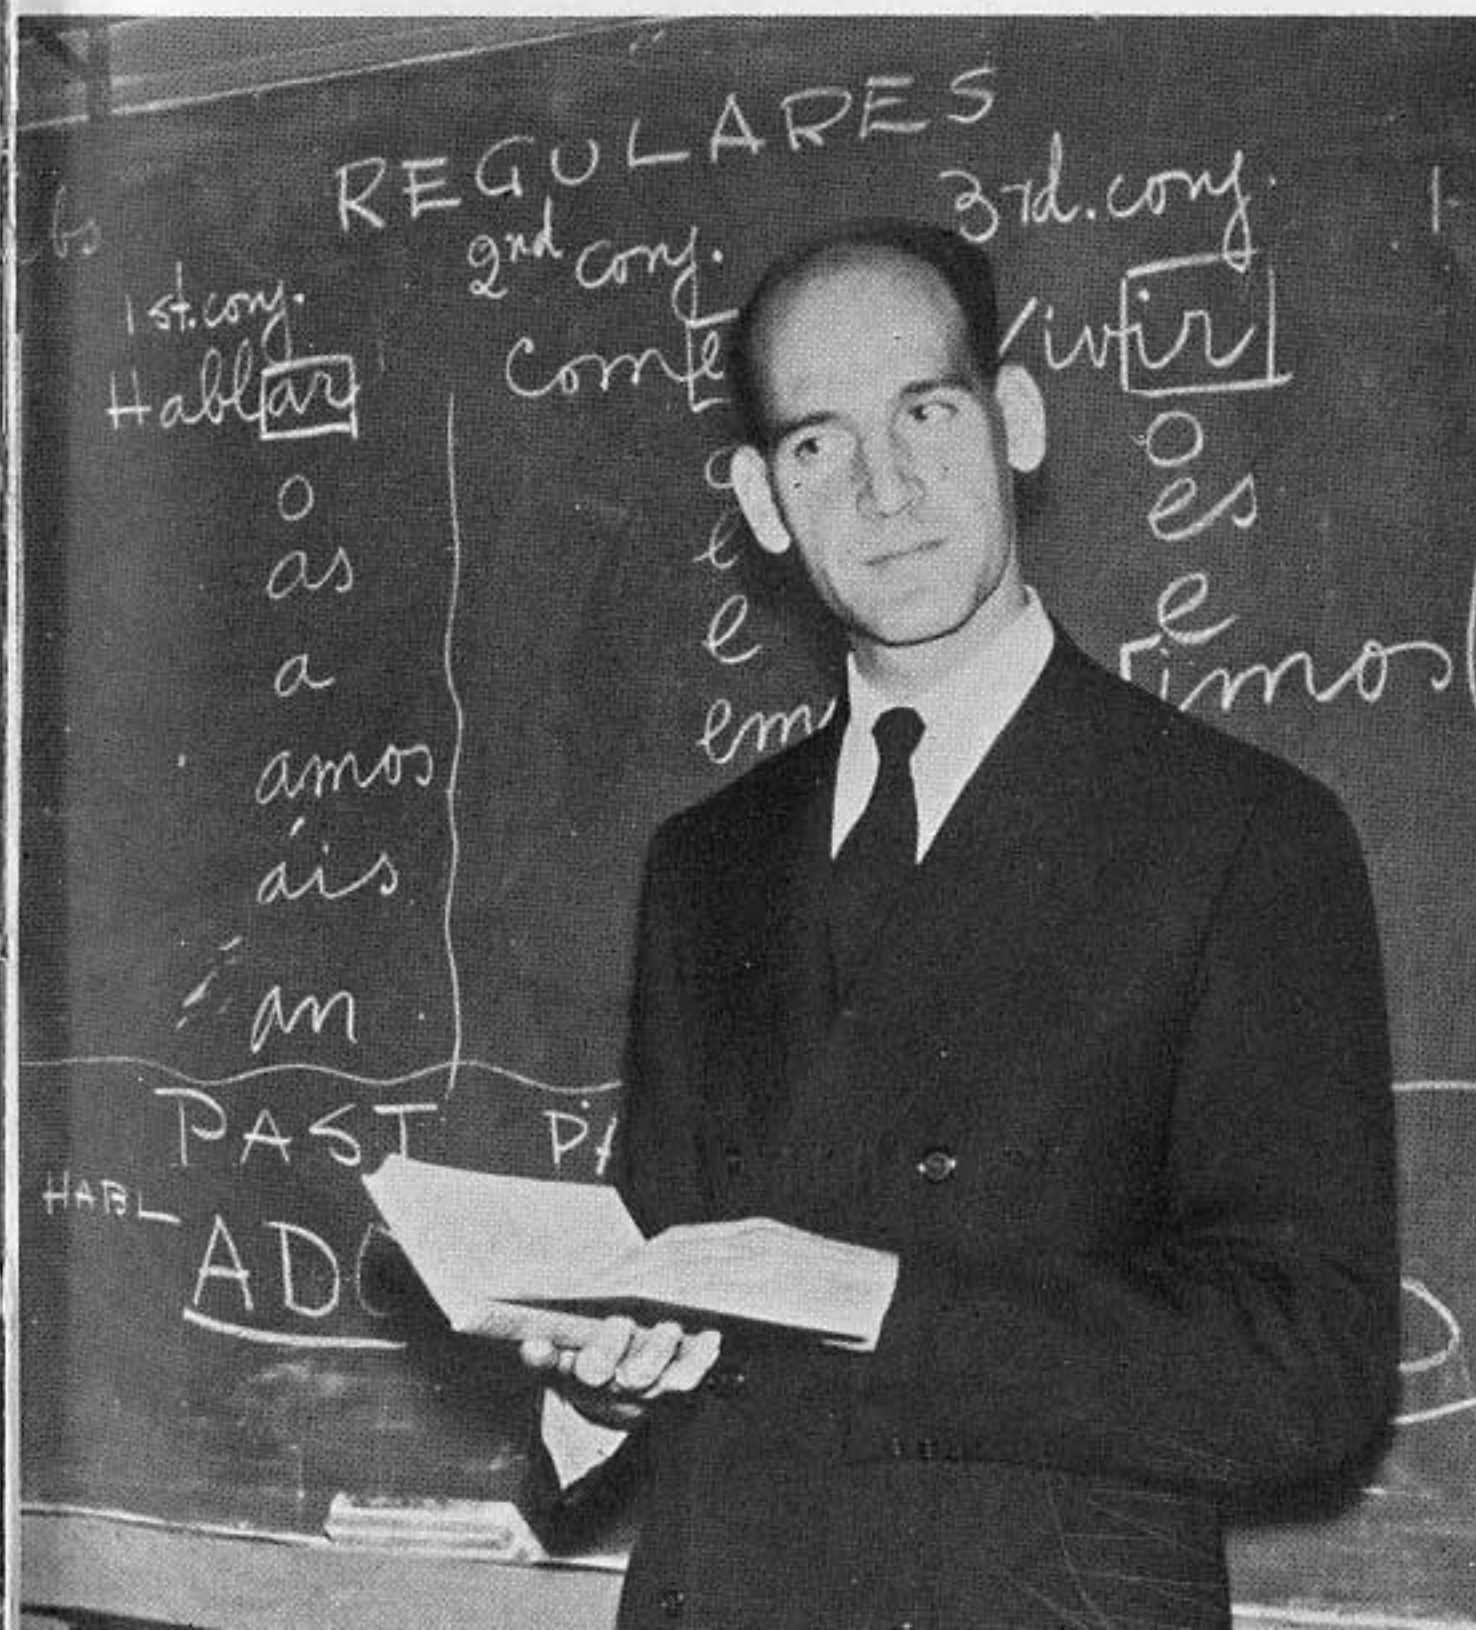

Brother Germain Vonderscher, S. M.

Brother Germain Vonderscher, born in Albe, France, has dedicated his life to service in the Society of Mary for the past 45 years, of which 33 years have been spent in Japan. Besides being the Eighth Grade homeroom tutor, Brother teaches Arithmetic, History, and French. The responsibility of supervising the senior boarders eats up much of his time after-class hours. Philately and flowers are his hobbies.

Brother Enrique Zabala, S. M.

Brother Enrique Zabala of Victoria, Spain who entered the Society of Mary in 1944 arrived at Saint Joseph College on August 23, 1953. As athletic director and coach of the soccer team legendary Brother Zabala, nurtured his sportsmen and guided them to garnering the Yokohama Open Soccer Championship each year from 1957 to 1959. Occasionally Brother Zabala relaxes by playing in a soccer game against visiting teams.

Father Angelo Pilla, S. M.

Father Angelo Pilla was born in the southern part of Italy. He began his study for the priesthood in Rome and completed his clerical education in Switzerland where he was ordained in 1947. He was sent to teach in his native land until 1949. Presently Father Pilla has special Catechism classes for non-Catholic grade school students and teaches English in the lower grades.

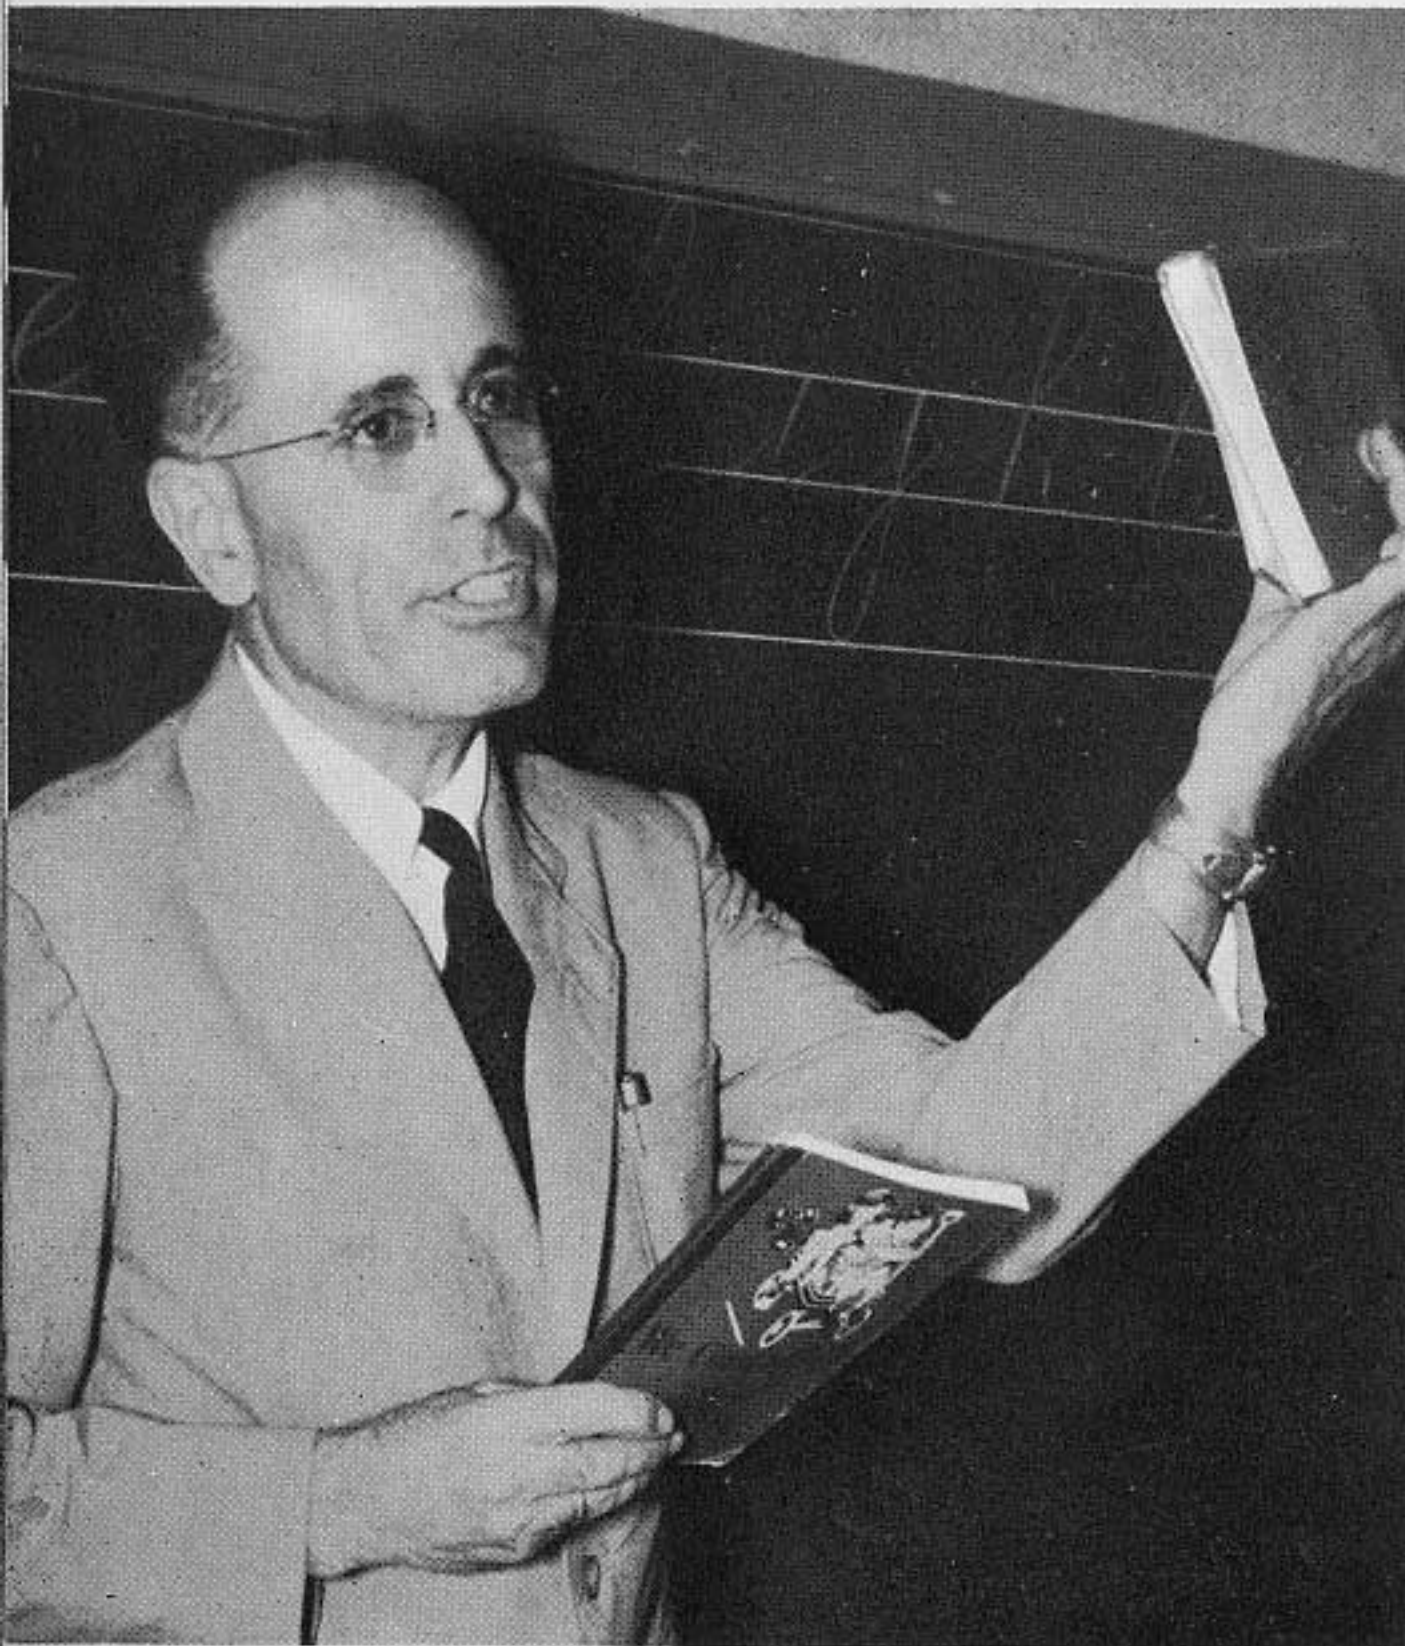

Mrs. Henriette Sakai

Mrs. Henriette Sakai was born in Kobe. After experience in English-speaking schools in Singapore, she began to teach at Saint Joseph College in 1950. Her heavy responsibilities as homeroom tutor of the second grade and as teacher of subjects from Arithmetic to English Grammar and Penmanship make her one of the busiest lay teachers in the School.

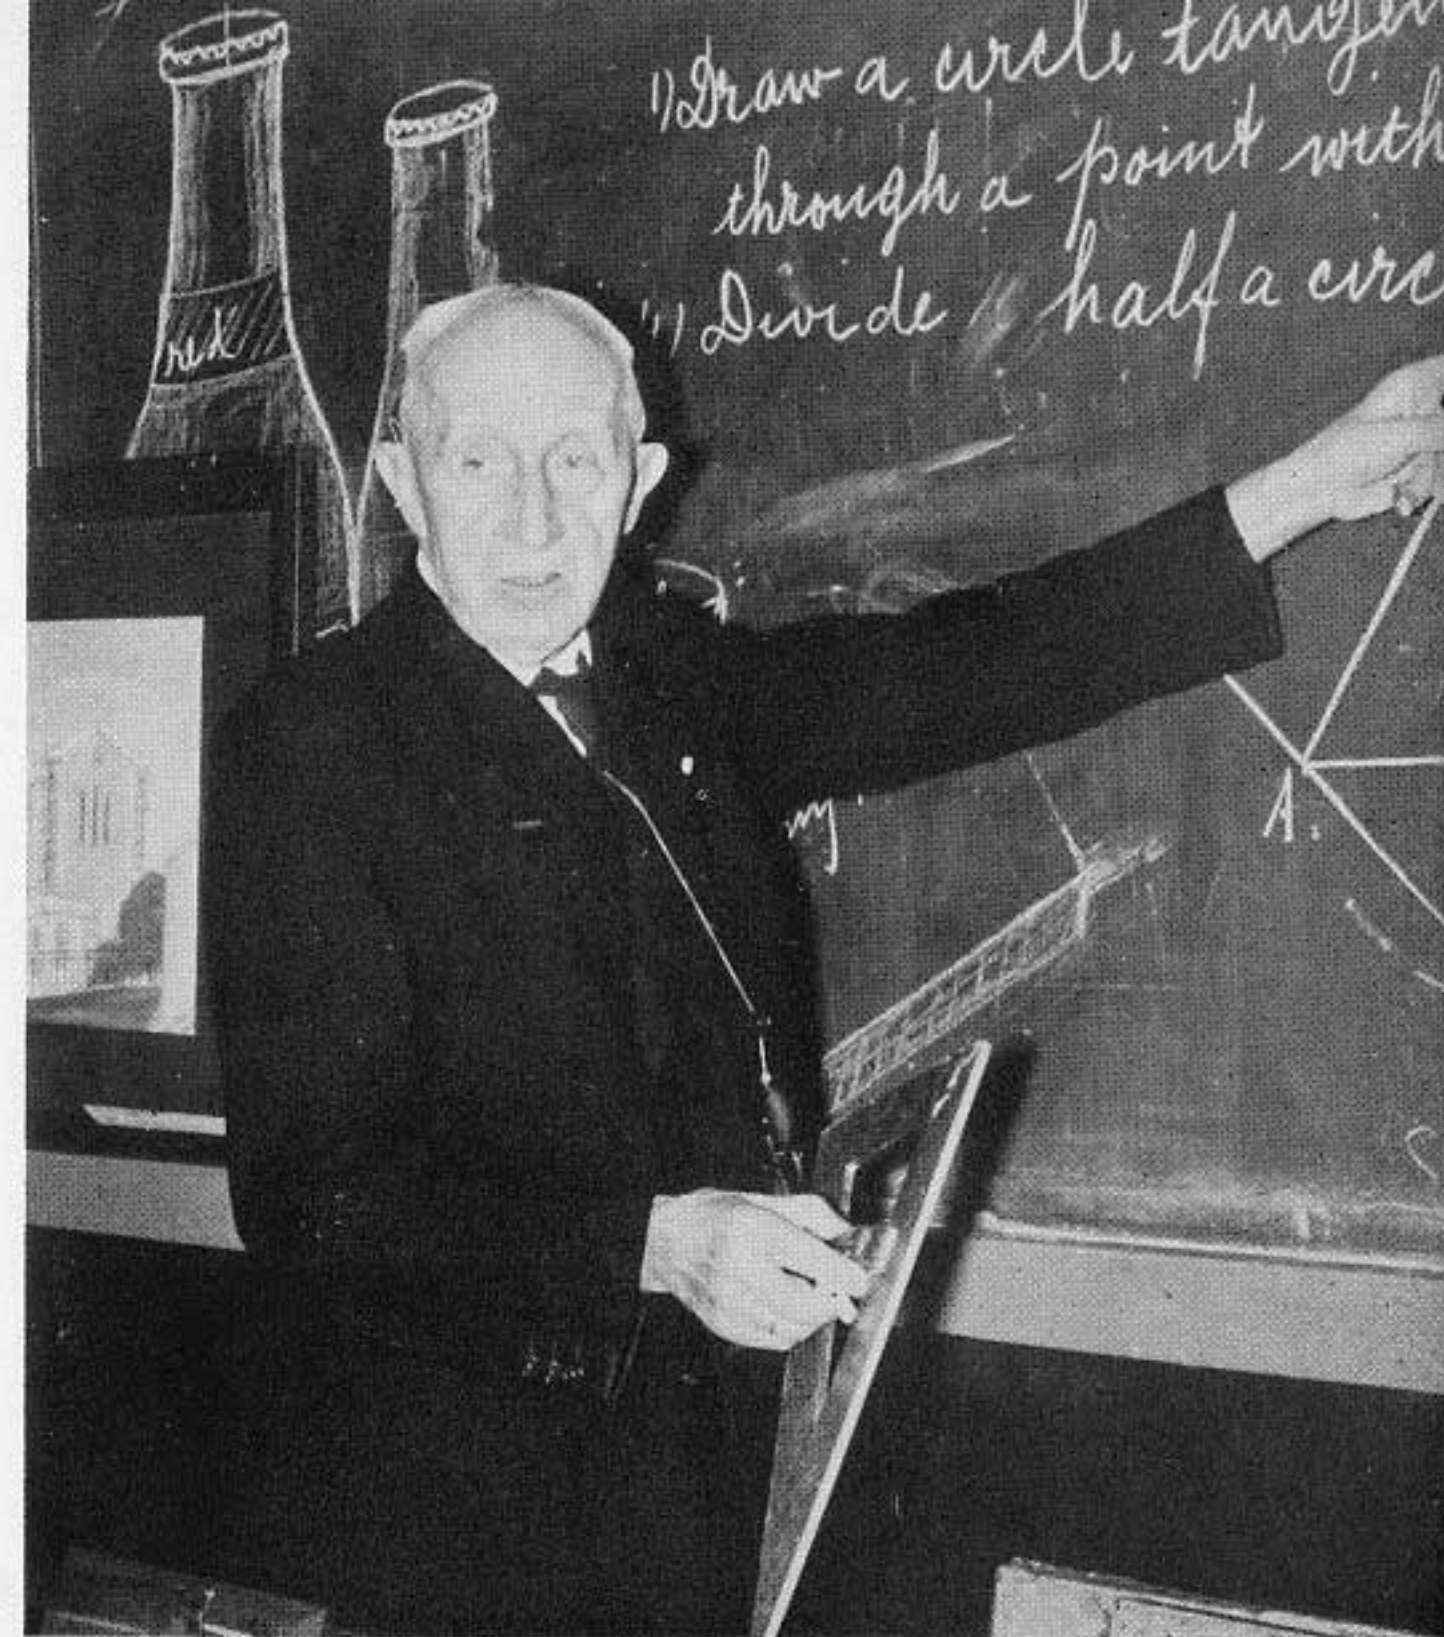

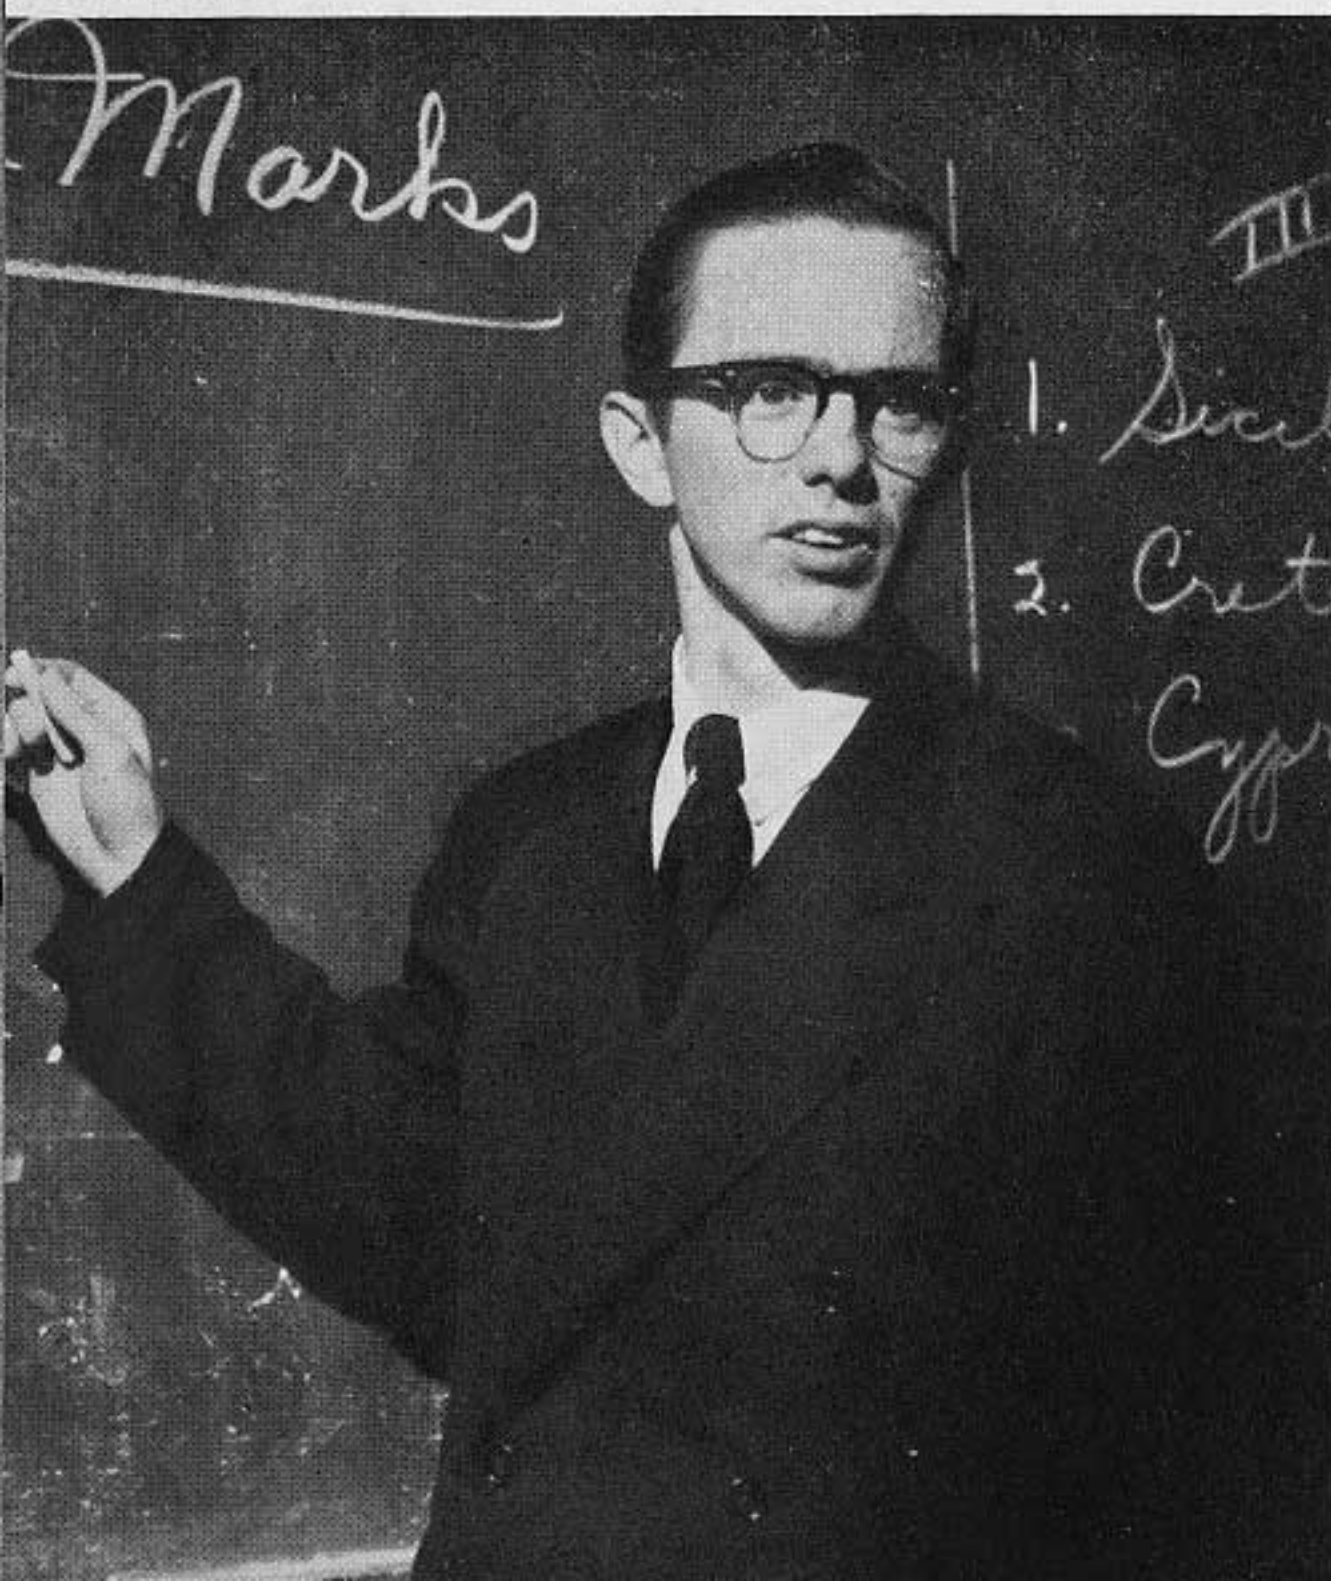

Brother Leo Kraft, S. M.

Born on the mountain tops of the snow-capped Swiss Alps, Brother Leo Kraft entered the Society at the age of thirteen. Brother Leo has always been entrusted with the ticklish, taming mission of launching the little "sputniks" of the first grade into a favorable educational "space," and guiding them through the orbit of the three R's. A second father to his students, he is the prefect of the small boarders, and the School's Cubmaster. Brother Leo likes hiking, soccer and "Ozumo."

Brother James Masur, S. M.

Pennsylvania's Brother James Masur joined the Marianists in 1941 and came to S.J.C. five years ago. Small, trim, and hard-working, Brother James became our school Librarian initiating major changes in our then little "treasure island" of books. Now besides being the homeroom teacher of the sixth grade our Brother Jim is the Boarding Prefect and the Assistant Scoutmaster of the International Boys Scouts of S.J.C. He is also the S.J.C. Chronicle's moderator.

Brother Albert Bletzacker, S. M.

In the year 1899 Brother Albert arrived in Japan and for 41 long years educated the youth of the Kaisei Gakuen in Nagasaki. By nature indefatigable, he not only taught but also managed the playground supervision and dabbled in sports direction. It took the shuddering impact of World War II to bring Brother Albert to Saint Joseph College. He presently instructs in art in the grade school and ably operates the school stationery.

Mrs. Masa Nishimura

Hailing from Yokohama, Mrs. Masa Nishimura came to Saint Joseph College in late 1954. She teaches Japanese to the Japanese students who are obliged by their Government to learn the native language. Although Mrs. Nishimura is strict, and requires full cooperation from her students, one can portray her as warm-hearted, and soft-spoken. Conquering Mount Fuji is one of the many highlights in her life.

Mrs. Margaret Koizumi

Mrs. Margaret Koizumi was born on April 4, 1914 in Dairen, Manchuria. She arrived in Japan on July 6, 1946, and on March 3, 1952 entered Saint Joseph College as secretary. Apart from being dependable and efficient, Mrs. Koizumi possesses the skills of a versatile factotum. She can with ease adapt herself as private secretary of the principal, as translator, or as receptionist.

Mr. Yoshio Kondo

Smiling Mr. Kondo entered S.J.C. in May of 1957 and has since been the receptionist and information clerk. He issues bus, train, and tramcar passes and provides a countless number of other beneficial services.

Mr. Satoru Yamamoto

The school's punctilious assistant secretary, Mr. Yamamoto types, translates, and handles the students' absentee record. He is also the Principal's courier to the various classes and the auxiliary receptionist.

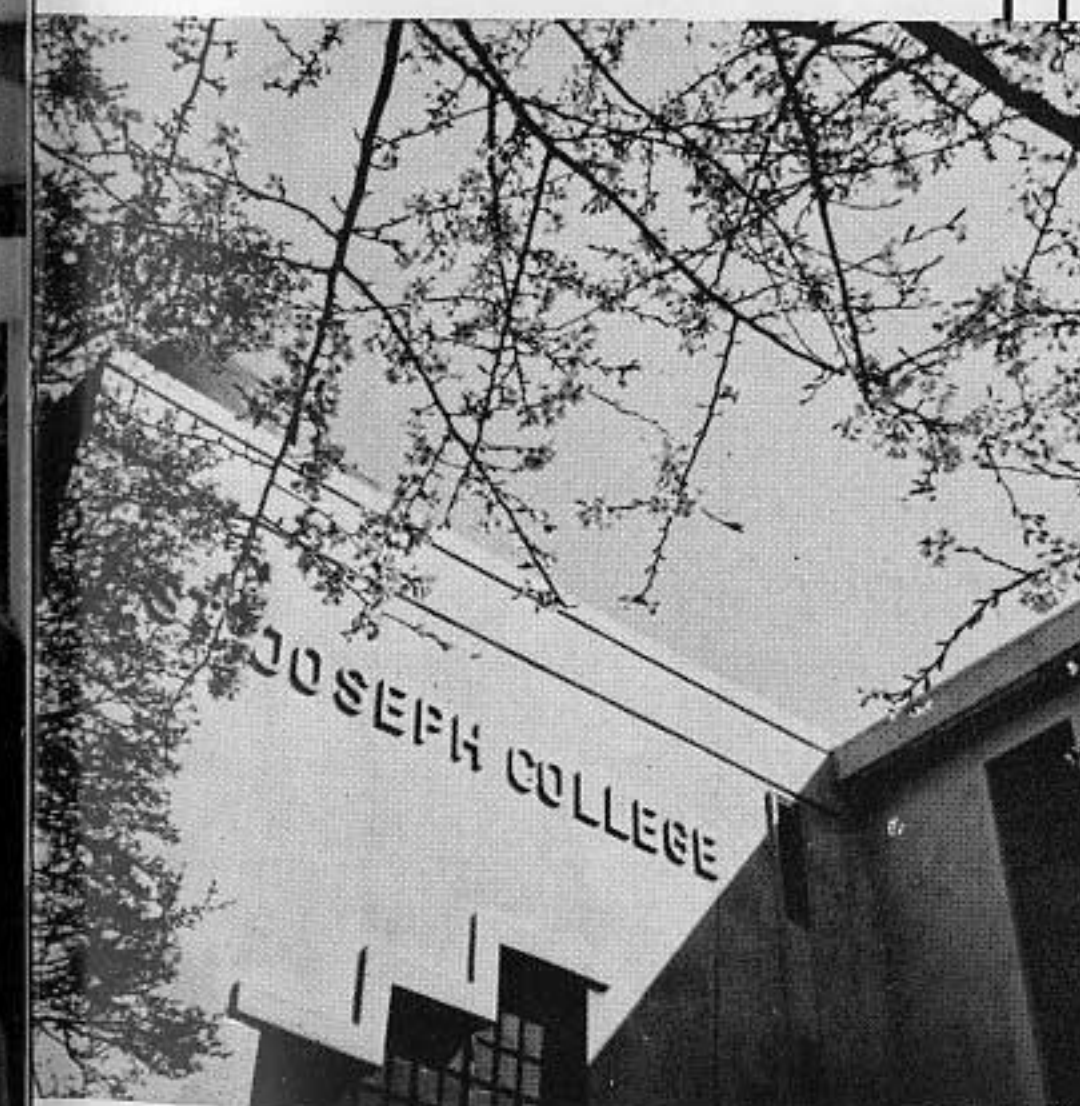

"We are proud Saint Joseph's boys to be,
Proud to share its honor and its fame,
And our joy in life shall ever be
To increase its glory and its name."

GRADUATES OF 1959

Our graduating class of 1959 consists of twenty students representing seven nationalities. Of the seventeen commercial and three academic students, five are expected to pursue further studies abroad. Because we were a mere handful of conservative students with diverse characteristics, our greatest problem during the first few months was in adjusting ourselves to work as a unit. Brother Aloysius Soden, our homeroom teacher with his Marianist intuition, recognized our potentialities and worked with us constantly, driving us, urging, and consoling us till we finally discovered the responsibilities of an active Senior Class, and then started the dynamo rolling till 40% of our well-knit group was placed on the roll of honor and our annual collection of advertisements for the "Forward" reached an all-time record. Almost 100% of the Class partakes in sports. Three Seniors are members of the School's varsity soccer team, while others enjoy themselves in baseball, basketball or in some other sport. In fine let our respected president Richard V. Tse, speak on behalf of the Senior Class, "Yes, the Class is small, but the cooperation and the deep feeling of gratitude behind it is great."

Dear Graduates of 1959:

Congratulations upon the completion of your high school course.

How happy you are that years of earnest endeavor on your part and on that of your parents and of your teachers have ended successfully and have merited for you the coveted diploma! How your parents and your teachers and your relatives and friends rejoice with you because of your success!

You have reasons to be proud and happy, principally because you have begun to realize so many things as the result of your serious study and your indefatigable industry. You yourselves have cooperated, for the most part, wholeheartedly to realize the objectives of the Marianist education given at St. Joseph College, an education with its physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual and social facets, so that you might have life and have it more abundantly.

Now with your diploma in hand you feel that you are ready to face life with all its vicissitudes. In reality, you are ready and willing to do so. Yet, as you have heard before, you are unable to encounter life alone, because unaided you and all of human kind are so finite and, therefore, uncertain of yourselves and your capabilities. It is a manly thing to face up to this situation and do what you must to master it. Consequently, you must strive as if all your living depended upon your striving alone, but pray as if your life depended upon God only. With this formula fulfilled, you cannot fail in the struggle of life; without its fulfillment, you cannot succeed.

In conclusion as a formal but profound wish, we say to you with Jonathan Swift, "May you live all the days of your lives."

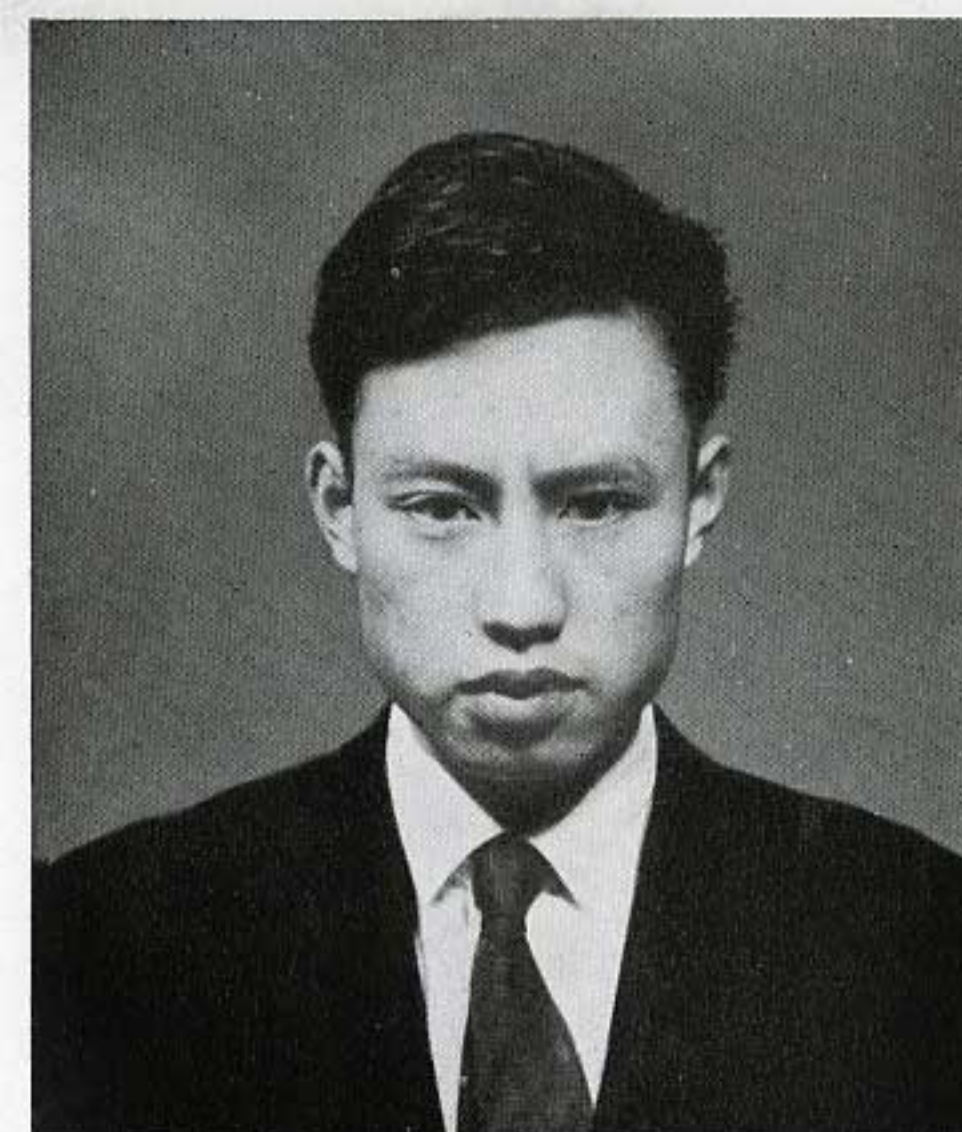

Devotedly yours,

Francis J. Tribull

HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES

The high school underclassmen consists of about 120 students who take part in serious school work and co-curricular activities. More than twenty nationalities of ten different religions strive daily to produce, through cooperation and mutual understanding, a lasting "family spirit" that constitutes a little United Nations of their very own. Progress of knowledge and skills is realized in a Marianist way under the academic and business programs which fit each student into his own line of interest. Scholastic achievements in English, French, History, Bookkeeping, Algebra, Physics and other subjects sufficiently consume the students' time and energy. Sports such as soccer, track and field, softball, and basketball with activities that include Dramatics, Boys Scouts, and the Sodality, enable these young men to use and develop their abilities that are very necessary in building Marianist graduates: courageous, disciplined, and respectable men.

GRADE SCHOOL CLASSES

In an institution where so many nationalities and religions intermix, it is a wonder how the perfection of God's will is reflected in the intimate friendship, close cooperation, and mutual understanding exhibited by the Grade School students. More than three hundred pupils from the first grade to the eighth now occupy an entire building that once housed both High School and Grade School lads. Fundamental educational courses ranging from elementary mathematics and science to basic English and Religion are available to assist the youngsters pursue their scholastic aims for the future. Besides, there are numerous skills developed, such as the mechanical arts, dramatics, and effective athletics. To develop their lengthening limbs and to absorb their effervescent animal spirits, there is a big cushion of dirt and sand, a spacious playground, where they can run and yell to their heart's content. Thus both body and soul are being harmoniously formed to make them into ideal products of Marianist education, useful and happy citizens of this world and of the next.

GRADE SCHOOL GRADUATES 1959

Grade School Graduation is a time of anticipation, and sadness—anticipation that the graduates look eagerly and hopefully into the future of their high school career—sadness that some may have to part. Numerous are their cherished memories as they look back at eight eventful years of “basic training” in education and body building athletics. In studies, mathematics cudgels their brains; Spanish twists their tongue, but with the assistance and sympathy from their homeroom teacher, Brother Germain, and the Spanish Brother, our Eighth Graders master their arithmetic with calculated accuracy and mumble a couple of “Ole’s” in typical Spanish elegance.

In the field of athletics, these young men with cracking voice are outstanding in soccer yielding good varsity material to the School team, and in basketball in which they are equal to the high school teams.

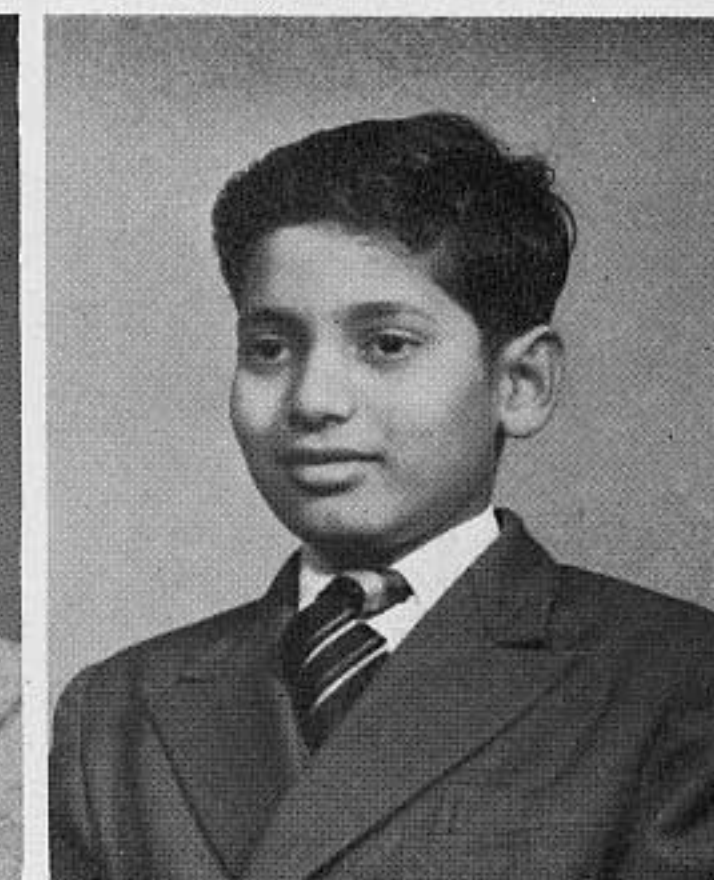

Having satisfactorily completed their elementary training, doubtlessly an outstading educational experience to them, these young gentlemen march in to the High School Department prepared to bring greater honor to Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.

ACTIVITIES OF S.J.C.

The activities of Saint Joseph College are manifold. The School boasts a famous "first," the first International Boys Scouts Brigade founded in 1919. With its fourteen nations and its thirty-five members the SJC Choir participates in many international music contests bringing home honors and leaving impressions of international harmony. Not to neglect the spiritual nurture of their students, the Marianists provide a Sodality group, under the general supervision of Father Gerber, for each of the high school classes.

In 1954 was founded the SJC Chronicle, giving students a running account of all scholastic events. In the Student Library can be found more than eight thousand volumes. Of athletics, soccer occupies a prominent position. In its past fifty-eight years history honor was brought to the Marianists and to SJC by innumerable legendary wins, and losses too, interclass, interscholastic, intercity and international meets—a record hard to be equaled by any other similar institution in the world.

✠ SODALITY ✠

Combined Meeting of Sodality of St. Maur's and St. Joseph, January 1959

The High School Sodality Moderators in conclave

The Marianist Sodality at Saint Joseph College is made up of thirty high school students, divided into four groups, who work toward filial piety to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Catholic Action is practised by this organization for the fulfillment of the spiritual duties of its members and of others. In addition to the weekly meetings held by the individual groups, there is a general assembly of all the groups once a month, whenever possible. Father Gerber is the director of the Sodality as well as moderator of the Sophomore Group. The other moderators are Father Zeinz, who supervises the Senior Group; Brother Sullivan, who takes care of the Junior Group; and Brother Scheible, who handles the Freshman Group.

S. J. C. International Choir

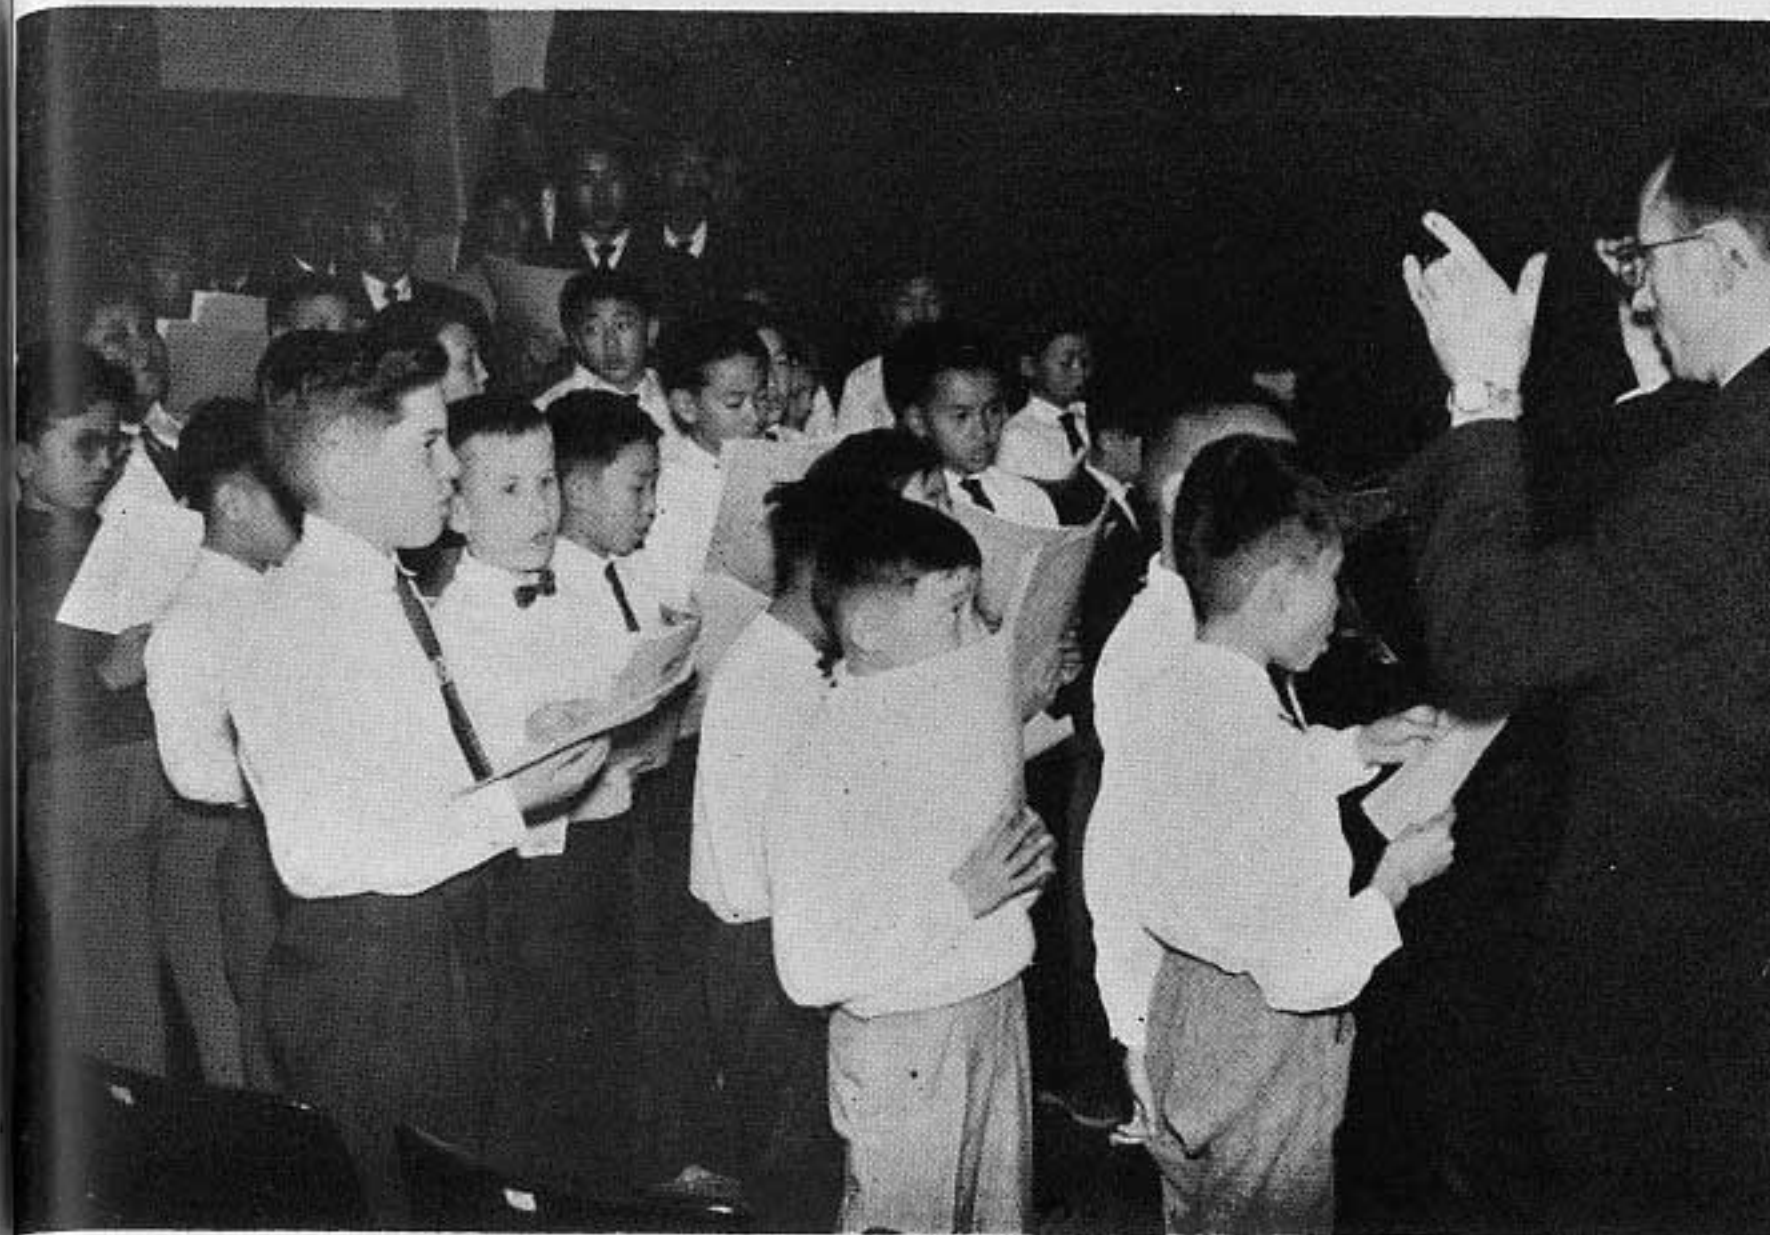

The SJC International Choir consists of 35 members from fourteen separate nationalities. Its members range from the 4th through the 12th Grades. Since 1952 the choir has been under the competent direction of Brother Eulogio. The salient features of the choir are enthusiasm, good will and a genuine cooperative spirit. This cosmopolitan singing body participates in major school assemblies, church services, annual music contests and other affairs sponsored by various organizations.

The Choir has achieved an enviable reputation in the Yokohama Area, and its members have carried off prizes in not a few musical contests. Certainly S.J.C. may well be proud of its songsters!

BOARDING DEPARTMENT

Saint Joseph College Boarding Department is another extracurricular activity to which the Marianists so generously give their time and effort. Brother Masur is the head supervisor for boarders from the fifth to the eighth grades at the separate dormitory grounds for the grade school students near the school. To assist him in managing more than forty boarders Brother Kraft takes care of pupils from the first to the fourth grades. Brother Vonderscher supervises five special high school boarders on the school premises. An improved Senior Boarding Department with spacious quarters is expected with the completion of a new Gym-Students Hall combination now being built.

le Chronicle

Our school's "best and only" newspaper, the Chronicle, is issued every month to the student body by a group of able writers in the Sophomore and the Junior Classes. It is now a stable school activity because the students in charge show a satisfactory amount of interest and also because of the growing number of outside subscribers who find the Chronicle to be a good source of S. J. C. Information. Brother James Masur is still at the control stick, as he has piloted the paper since its foundation in 1954. Usually editors, writers, and photographers from the Sophomore class handle the paper's production which offers staff members valuable experience. After five years of hard work on the Chronicle by Brother James and his student collaborators, the newspaper is still serving admirably its purpose: all the truth in the school news to all S. J. C. students.

STUDENT LIBRARY

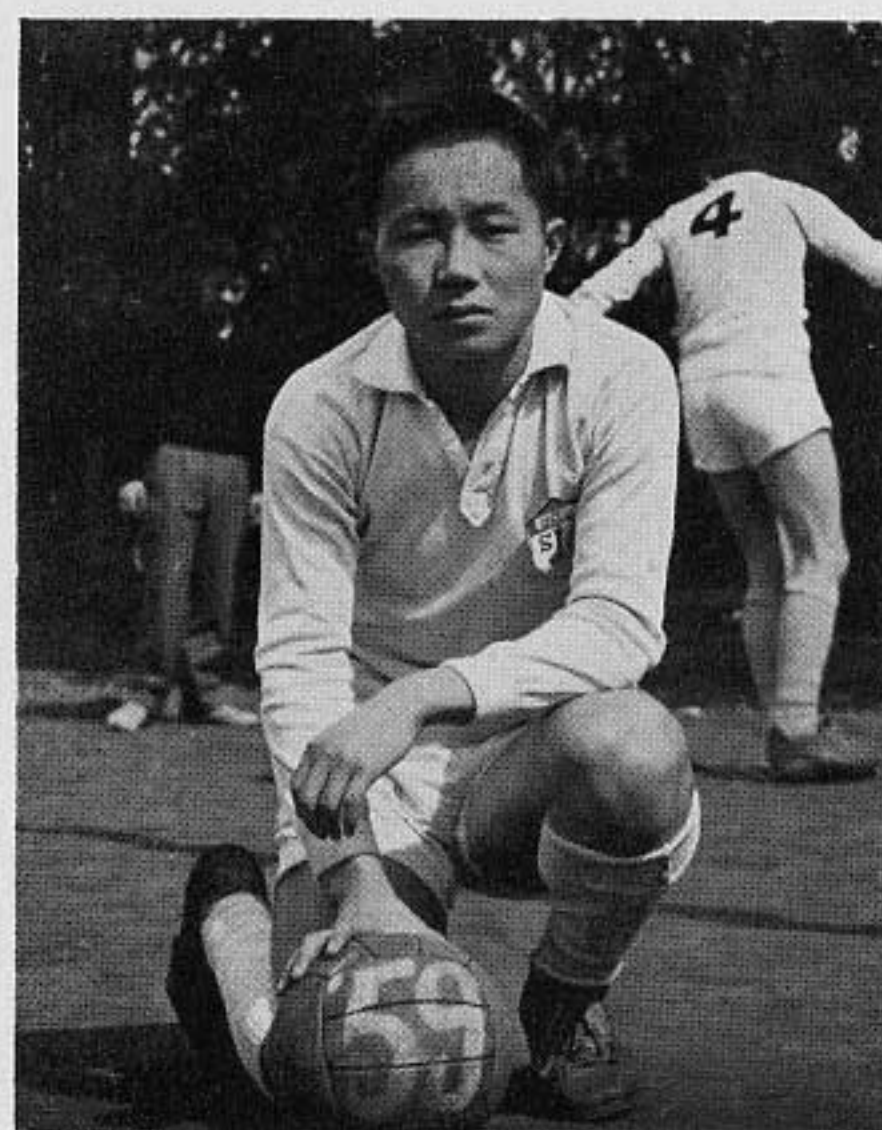

"A radiant lighthouse along the stormy sea of learning." With almost 9,000 of which 2000 were added during the summer holidays of 1958, the Library has installed brand new double row steel shelving of grey capable of accomodating almost 4,000 books. Brother Charles Schermesser, the Librarian assisted by several Student librarians see that the book borrowing regulations are properly observed, there being a limit of four books per high school student and a maximum of three per grade school student. The S.J.C. Library with an average of 20 books per boy or 66 books for each high school student is proportionately larger than most high school libraries, even in the U. S. A.

INTRAMURALS

GRADE SCHOOL INTRAMURALS

The great number of willing students in each class of the grade school has necessitated the forming of two or more groups of "fighters" with such names as Apaches, Navy, etc. Their fields of sports are the same as those of the high school: soccer, basketball, softball, volleyball, pingpong, badminton, handball, and track. The higher grades compete with the high school players.

SJC ASSOCIATION

The Marianists believe that their education should not stop when their students graduate but that their guiding influence should continue even to the grave. They try to keep in contact with their former students and to help them whenever they can.

The Faculty of St. Joseph's had the preceding objective in mind, when seven years ago to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Foundation of the College, they initiated the Saint Joseph College Association whose members include both former students and present friends. The Association has grown until it now numbers almost four hundred members of whom one hundred support actively.

The Association itself has been of great help to the school in various projects. It helped to finance the Gaschy Entrance completed in 1954 and embellished this improvement with a commemorative plaque in perpetual souvenir of "the Man who made men." At present the Association is heart and soul behind the Building Drive for the projected gymnasium and senior boarding installation. Socially the Association sponsors a dance annually, usually a big success.
